Shipping Full JTR HHG Allowance

All unaccompanied Service members in the grade of E-1 through E-6 must reside on post when adequate quarters are available.

It is therefore recommended that unaccompanied Service members do NOT ship their full Joint Travel Regulation (JTR) household goods (HHG) allowance as your personal items will not fit in barracks rooms. Servicemembers who DO elect to have full JTR allowances shipped will be required to locate Non Temporary Storage (NTS) and pay for the storage out of pocket (please note that storage facilities are extremely limited in Germany and having full JTR HHG is not adequate justification for CNA approval).

If upon arrival it is determined that adequate barracks space is not projected to be available for a servicemember within 60 days, the servicemember will be issued a Certificate of Non-Availability (CNA) to reside off post. Servicemembers may at that point contact transportation and have their full JTR allowance shipped to them.
