TRAINING, FEDERAL, LOCAL NATIONAL HOLIDAYS | MEMORIAL DAY, PFINGSTMONTAG

MAY 22, 25:

The U.S. celebrates the federal holiday Memorial Day, and Germany celebrates Pfingstmontag May 25. Furthermore, May 22 is a U.S. Army Europe and Africa training holiday. As a result, the following services and facilities are scheduled to alter their hours:

- Arts and crafts: The Arts and Crafts Center is closed May 25.
- Housing: The Housing Services Office is closed May 25. For work emergencies, visit the page here or call 09641-70-526-0115 or DSN 526-0115.
- Self-help: The Self-Help Store is scheduled to close May 25.
- Vehicle registration: In addition to closure May 25, the Vehicle Registration Office will close May 22.

The above is not necessarily an exhaustive list, and before you conduct business on post, call the facility or service to ensure they are still open. Most off-post stores and restaurants will be closed May 25 as well.

KINDERFEST

MAY 30:

Parent Central Services celebrates military children and their resilience and character from noon to 4 p.m. May 30 at the School Age Center. There will be military equipment displays,
