

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
UNITED STATES ARMY GARRISON BAVARIA
UNIT 28130
APO AE 09114

AMIM-BAL (100)

MEMORANDUM FOR All Military and Civilian Personnel within USAG Bavaria

SUBJECT: USAG Bavaria Policy Memorandum #12, AAFES Exchange Privilege Suspension

1. Reference: Army Regulation 215-8, Army and Air Force Exchange Service Operations.
2. Upon receipt of credible information that an individual with AAFES privileges has committed the offense(s) of larceny, theft, shoplifting or employee pilferage of AAFES property or presentation, the individual will have his or her AAFES privileges immediately suspended by the Directorate of Emergency Services (DES), pending the outcome of investigation by the DES and adjudication of the offense by the individual's commander or the Civilian Misconduct Action Authority (CMAA).
 - a. Individuals found not to have committed the offense of larceny, theft, shoplifting or employee pilferage, of AAFES property by their commander or the CMAA will have their AAFES privileges reinstated.
 - b. Individuals found by their commander or the CMAA to have committed the offense of larceny of AAFES property will have their AAFES privileges revoked across the USAG Bavaria enterprise for at least six months.
3. Individuals who have had their AAFES privileges revoked may appeal the revocation to the Garrison Commander or the next higher commander who may reinstate exchange privileges for cogent and compelling reasons IAW AR 215-8 paragraph 7-6e.
4. POC for this policy is the USAG Bavaria DES Law Enforcement Division at DSN 526-4310.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "S. C. Flanagan".

STEPHEN C. FLANAGAN
COL, SF
Commanding