

BAVARIA MILITARY COMMUNITY REDUCE YOUR RISK

ARMY STRONG.®

FORCE PROTECTION

USAG Bavaria is headquartered in Grafenwoehr, as well as the 7th Army Joint Multinational Training Command. The commander of the JMTC is the General Officer for Force Protection (GOFP) at U.S. Army installations in Ansbach, Garmisch, Grafenwoehr, Hohenfels, Illersheim and Vilseck.

Uniform wear off U.S. Army installations is restricted to and from work only or on approved official duty. Uniforms may NOT be worn off-post during lunch.

PT outside installation gates in PT gear is prohibited. Exception: Service members can wear their PT gear from gate 20 on Tower Barracks to the intersection of Henry Kissinger Strasse turn-around point.

Remove decals and stickers from vehicles which can readily identify you as an American.

Do not wear the military uniform to pick up personnel at civilian airports. Wear civilian clothing when traveling by commercial means throughout the Army in Europe area.

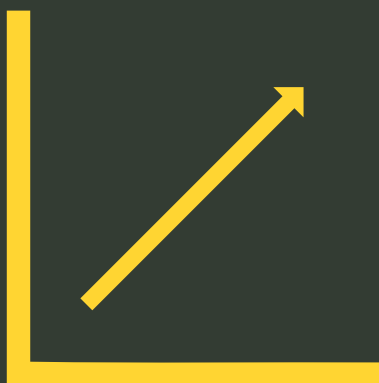

Reduce visible signatures in housing areas by not displaying American affiliated flags or banners.

Do not wear civilian attire distinguishing you as American.

RISK

VISIBILITY

As your American signature increases, so does your risk of being a target. Reduce your risk. Blend in with your community and surroundings.
