 - International German Birth Certificate or U.S. Report of Birth Abroad

Note: This Command Sponsorship checklist only applies to dual military with no command sponsored dependents.

All foreign documents must be submitted in one of two ways: submit a copy of the original foreign document, plus a copy of the document translated into English; or submit the international format document with multiple languages, one of which must be English.*

*Custody documents FOR US CITIZENS: Legal documents from a United States Court must state that the Soldier or Soldier's Spouse is granted full legal and physical custody, permanent physical custody or sole managing conservatorship of a family member. A power of attorney, a foreign court document for a US citizen, DEERS enrollment, or a notarized statement is not authorized documentation.

*Custody documents FOR NON-US CITIZENS: Must be a court document signed by a judge from the country of citizenship and must submitted with a copy of the document translated into English. Legal documents from a Foreign Court must state that the Soldier or Soldier's Spouse is granted full legal and physical custody, permanent physical custody or sole managing conservatorship of a family member. A power of attorney, DEERS enrollment, or a notarized statement is not authorized documentation.
