MEMORANDUM FOR All Military and Civilian Personnel within USAG Bavaria

SUBJECT: USAG Bavaria Policy Memorandum #12, AAFES Exchange Privilege Suspension

1. Reference: Army Regulation 215-8, Army and Air Force Exchange Service Operations

2. Upon receiving credible information that an individual with AAFES privileges has committed larceny, theft, shoplifting, or employee pilferage of AAFES property, the Directorate of Emergency Services (DES) will immediately suspend their AAFES privileges. This suspension will remain in effect pending the outcome of the DES investigation and adjudication of the offense by the individual's commander or the Civilian Misconduct Action Authority (CMAA).

a. If the commander or the CMAA finds that an individual did not commit the offense of larceny, theft, shoplifting, or employee pilferage of AAFES property, their AAFES privileges will be reinstated..

b. If the commander or the CMAA finds that an individual did commit the offense of larceny of AAFES property, their AAFES privileges will be revoked across the entire USAG Bavaria enterprise for a minimum of six months.

3. Individuals who have had their AAFES privileges revoked may appeal the decision to the Garrison Commander or the next higher commander. In accordance with AR 215-8, paragraph 7-6e, exchange privileges may be reinstated for cogent and compelling reasons.

4. POC for this policy is the USAG Bavaria DES Law Enforcement Division at DSN 599-4642.
