

Fort Belvoir Facebook Virtual Town Hall Q&A Recap

June 25, 2020

This is not a verbatim transcript. Questions and answers during town hall may be edited for clarity.

Participants:

- COL Michael Greenberg, Garrison Commander, Fort Belvoir
- CAPT Cynthia Judy, Director, Fort Belvoir Community Hospital

Question: Is the youth curfew still in effect?

COL Michael Greenberg: Yes, the youth curfew is still in effect during HPCON Bravo. The Fort Belvoir Temporary Policy Memorandum #2 On-Post curfew for minors remains in effect from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. for youth 17 and younger unless they are accompanied by an adult.

Question: Is the AER Office open?

COL Michael Greenberg: The office is not physically open but we there is support for Soldiers in need of support. Contact the AER Office at 703-696-3510 or 703-696-8435.

Question: When will Wood Theater open?

COL Michael Greenberg: Wood Theater is one of the facilities scheduled to open as we continue to assess safety during HPCON Bravo. We don't have an exact date but as conditions allow, we will open the theater and additional facilities. Please remember this is an ongoing process.

Question: Is the parade field open?

COL Michael Greenberg: Yes, the parade field is open. During HPCON Bravo groups are limited to 50 people.
