DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
406th ARMY FIELD SUPPORT BRIGADE
BUILDING F-4130 LANE STREET
FORT BRAGG, NORTH CAROLINA 28310

ASCE-CO
Office of the Brigade Commander

I would like to take this opportunity to officially welcome you to the 406th Army Field Support Brigade (AFSB). You will be joining a unit with a unique and important mission. I am certain this assignment will be both challenging and rewarding.

The 406th AFSB is subordinate to the US Army Sustainment Command (ASC), Rock Island, Illinois. The Brigade provides a single Army Materiel Command (AMC) face to supported organizations and is responsible for integrating and synchronizing acquisition, logistics and technology. We enhance the readiness of all Active Army, Army Reserve and Army National Guard units within the 406th AFSB area of responsibility. Our area of responsibility includes all Army elements in the eastern United States.

Your designated supervisor and/or sponsor can be reached at work telephonically or via email information provided to you. Do not hesitate to make contact if you have any questions or concerns.

For Family Readiness Group (FRG) information, please visit <https://www.armyfrg.org> to subscribe and request access to the 406th AFSB virtual FRG website.

We also encourage DA Civilians to complete ASC electronic surveys listed below within 30 days of assignment to or departure from the 406th AFSB. The surveys are voluntary and confidential. The surveys give you an opportunity to improve your work environment and your ASC experience. You will also be helping to shape the future of ASC and the 406th AFSB.
