

Is a career in technology part of your future?

Microsoft can help

The MSSA program is open to transitioning service members with a scheduled discharge date and veterans with a honorable discharge, who are looking for a meaningful career in tech.

Contact your military base education or transition office for details, or go to military.microsoft.com/mssa and see if you can join our ranks in tech.

Military Affairs | We Still Serve

Microsoft, in partnership with Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University and Saint Martin's University, is committed to empowering our transitioning service members and veterans with the opportunity for relevant training that leads to meaningful careers in the tech industry.

EMBRY-RIDDLE
Aeronautical University,
WORLDWIDE

Saint Martin's
UNIVERSITY

Learn more at:

military.microsoft.com/mssa

Connect with us:

The appearance of U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) visual information does not imply or constitute DoD endorsement.

Certified by SCHIEV in the Commonwealth of Virginia

Microsoft Software & Systems Academy (MSSA)

Transition to a meaningful career in technology

You have what it takes.

military.microsoft.com/mssa

>90% MSSA student graduation rate

Participants from all five branches of the military

Army | Marine Corps | Navy | Air Force | Coast Guard

Of employed MSSA graduates,
>86%
are in technology jobs

>$70K Average MSSA graduates' salary

Top three roles

Software Engineer | Sales Support | Service Engineer

Total number of companies hiring MSSA graduates >280

“

It is only through hard work and immense effort, by determination and courage, that we move onto bigger and better things. MSSA allowed me to feel confident about my transition into the civilian workforce by providing me with the opportunity to leverage my military experiences and applying them to my current role at Microsoft.”

Solaire Sanderson

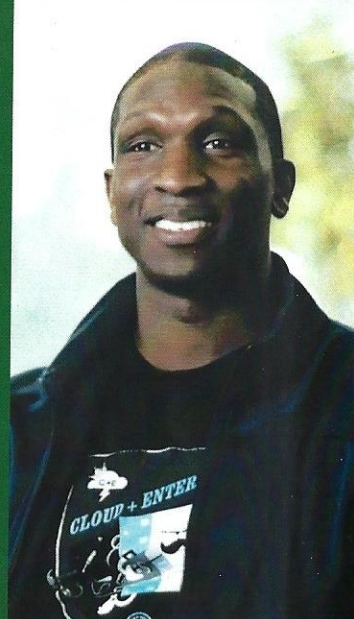

MSSA graduate
Former sergeant in the U.S. Marine Corps
Security Analyst at Microsoft

“

One of my fondest memories of the military is how it provided me with opportunities to better myself. Microsoft Software & Systems Academy is evidence of that. This program offered me and my family a true plan on which direction our lives would go after leaving the military.”

Bernard Bergan

MSSA graduate
Former sergeant in the U.S. Army Special Forces
Technical Account Manager at Microsoft

Microsoft Software & Systems Academy (MSSA)

Microsoft Software & Systems Academy (MSSA) provides the veteran community with an 18-week (or two 9-week terms) training for high-demand careers in cloud development, server and cloud administration, cybersecurity administration, and database and business intelligence administration.

Classes available at:

- Camp Lejeune
- Camp Pendleton
- Fort Benning
- Fort Bragg
- Fort Campbell
- Fort Carson
- Hampton Roads Military Community
- Jacksonville
- Joint Base Lewis-McChord
- Joint Base San Antonio
- Oceanside
- Quantico
- San Diego

Program graduates gain an interview for a full-time job at Microsoft or one of the company's hiring partners.