You are pinpointed to our organization and we are working diligently to assign you to a subordinate command within the brigade. If you have not already done so, please initiate a sponsorship request via the Army Career Tracker (ACT) system so that your gaining unit can assign you a sponsor. Paratroopers are the single most valuable resource in this brigade. As a team, we provide professional, adaptable, and agile sustainment to the best division in the United States Army. Paratroopers within this unit fulfill a multitude of roles vital to the 82nd Airborne Division. Our key sustaining operations generate from the two battalions within the Provider Brigade; the 189th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion and the 82nd Special Troops Battalion. The 82nd Airborne Division Sustainment Brigade is continuously called upon to provide support capabilities in both foreign theaters of operation and home station training. In November of 2015, we assumed an active role in the Global Response Force – we are on-call 24/7 to deploy the division worldwide within 18 hours of notification.

Once again, welcome to the 82nd Airborne Division Sustainment Brigade and Fort Bragg. We look forward to you joining our team in the near future!
