MEMORANDUM FOR Soldiers of the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) and Fort Campbell

SUBJECT: Welcome to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault)

Welcome to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) and Fort Campbell, home of the Army's only Air Assault Division. Joining the ranks of the 101st means becoming part of a storied legacy of courage, professionalism, and excellence that dates back to World War II. This Division has a rich history of leading the way in combat operations around the globe. Together, we want to provide a premier force projection platform of the "best trained, toughest, most innovative Soldiers with unwavering character, competence, and commitment" that gives our Army an unmatched capability to conduct forcible entry Air Assault and Large-scale, Long-range Air Assault (L2A2) operations in any environment and win decisively. This vision is supported by the following priorities:

1. Preparing for Ground Combat: operating daily with primary mission of improving Soldier's and units' capabilities to engage and defeat our enemies.

2. Developing Leaders: building the knowledge, skills, and attributes of you, your subordinate leaders, and future leaders within the organization.

3. Investing in Quality of Service: ensuring our Soldiers and Families have what they need, want to continue their service, and stay focused on their mission.

The 101st Airborne Division's motto, "Rendezvous with Destiny," is not just a phrase – it reflects the commitment and resolve that defines every member of this Division. Here at Fort Campbell, we owe you the opportunity to train Further, Faster, and in the Fiercest Conditions – to stay holistically Ready for today's adversaries while pushing the envelope to posture for Tomorrow's Fight – and to do so at a World-Class Installation surrounded by an Engaging and Supportive Community. Your duty, to support this Division's unique mission set and develop yourself as a force multiplier, is to attend The Sabalauski Air Assault School and earn the coveted Air Assault Badge.

Fort Campbell offers state-of-the-art training facilities, a strong sense of community, and robust resources to support you and your family. Our priority is that you and your family are transitioned to Fort Campbell with our full support and have all the information and resources at your disposal. Take the opportunity to review the welcome packet and feel free to contact your sponsor should you need any additional assistance during your PCS.

Remember, you are not alone. Your leadership is here to support and guide you, and your fellow Screaming Eagles will stand by your side through every mission. Take full advantage of the resources available to you, both professionally and personally, and do not hesitate to ask for help when needed, at any time throughout your PCS.

Once again, welcome to the team. We are honored to have you join the ranks of the Screaming Eagles. Together, we will continue to build upon the legacy of OUR proud Division.

Air Assault!

Air Assault and TSAAS Courses

Soldiers have the opportunity to attend Air Assault School after completing in processing. You will take an Air Assault assessment while in Kalsu that consists of a 4 mile run in 34 minutes or less, a rope climb, and six chin-ups. Those that pass will join Kalsu's Air Assault program. You then receive a one week train up consisting of the obstacle course, layout, classroom and hands on instruction before attending the next Air Assault class.

For Soldiers already Air Assault qualified, you may have the opportunity to attend a TSAAS course such as Rappel Master, FRIES/SPIES Master, Pathfinder, or Combatives.
