

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Video Challenge

"Not In My Crew"

What: Represent your crew or friend group and develop a creative video that supports Fort Campbell's Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month theme of 'Not In My Crew'.

How: While practicing social distancing, develop a virtual skit, dance, poem, or other message that speaks out against teen dating violence and bullying. See video challenge eligibility and rules.

When: Videos will be accepted through 29 Jan 21.

Who: Students ages 13-19 and enrolled in middle or high school during CY 2020-2021 and are dependents of active, retiree, or civilian employees .

Why: To raise awareness and show that your crew stands against teen dating violence and bullying.

Presented by Family Advocacy Program

Submit videos to fap.dvam@gmail.com

For more information, contact Family Advocacy Program 270-412-5500

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month: Cyberbullying “Not in my Crew”

Army Community Service
Family Advocacy Program

Hosts: A Virtual Discussion on how to identify and intervene against teen violence.

17 FEB 2021, 6:00 pm (adults and educators)

24 FEB 2021, 6:00 pm (teens 12 – 19 year old)

Upon registration you will receive a confirmation email. Two days before the class, a link to access the site will be emailed.

Register here:
fap.dvam@gmail.com

For more information:
270-412-5500

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month: Writing & Art Contest

Army Community Service
Family Advocacy Program
DEADLINE: 29 JAN 2021

Submit an original artwork or writing on teen dating violence and bullying.
ELIGIBILITY: Students ages 12 – 19
who are military dependents of active,
retiree, or civilian employees.
See Rules and Eligibility.

Submit original works of art or writings here:
fap.dvam@gmail.com

For more information:
270-412-5500

“Wear Orange & Take a Selfie Day”

12 Feb. 2021

Teen Dating Violence
Awareness Month

Show your solidarity by sporting your favorite orange t-shirt, hat, shoes, scarf or mask, and take a selfie. Share your selfie on social media to show that you support healthy teen dating relationships.

Share your selfies at: fap.dvam@gmail.com

For more information call ACS Family Advocacy program at 270-412-5500.

