Marine Battery to conduct artillery training exercise, noise and dust expected

FORT CARSON, Colo. — The 5th Battalion, 14th Marine Regiment, a U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Artillery Battery, will be conducting a live-fire training exercise on Fort Carson Oct. 18-21.

Increased noise and dust can be expected throughout the day and into the evening south of main post.

This training is intended to validate field artillery crews and is a regular part of the battery's training cycle.

Fort Carson is dedicated to being good neighbors and will continue to inform the public about training events that may affect surrounding communities. We will continue to listen to our community and work through any noise issues that may arise. We strive to balance our training requirements with respecting our neighboring communities.

Noise complaints should be directed to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-9849.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-7525. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
