Media Opportunity 4th Infantry Division conducts Ivy Mass exercise

FORT CARSON, Colo. – The 4th Infantry Division will conduct a live-fire training exercise at Fort Carson, June 3-10.

The exercise dubbed, Ivy Mass, showcases the division's multi-domain operations capabilities alongside joint force partners from the Marines, Air Force, and Colorado Army National Guard.

The large-scale exercise will integrate air, ground, cyber, and space-based systems to demonstrate how the Ivy Division uses converging effects to win on today's modern battlefield.

Maj. Gen. David Doyle and Command Sgt. Maj. Alexander Kupratty, the command team for the 4th Inf. Div., invites interested media to view the training Monday, June 10 at 11 a.m. Media who are interested in covering this event should RSVP by 3 p.m. Friday to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 640-0081.

The 4th Infantry Division is the Army's marquee multi-domain operations division. As the most agile and lethal division in the U.S. Army inventory, it has served in every major U.S. conflict since World War I.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 640-0081. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
