Fort Carson welcomes home 4th Inf. Div. Soldiers

FORT CARSON, Colo. – A homecoming ceremony for approximately 200 Soldiers from the 3rd Armored Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, will be held Nov. 4 at the William “Bill” Reed Special Events Center located on post.

During their nine-month deployment to Europe, the brigade worked alongside NATO allies and partners to conduct bilateral and multinational training exercises while deterring aggression in the region. All remaining 3rd ABCT units are expected to return home in time for the holidays.

“After nine months supporting U.S. European Command and our European allies and partners, our Soldiers are eager to reunite with their friends and Families,” said Col. Brian Gilbert, 3rd ABCT commander. “We are truly grateful for their resilience and commitment to excellence these past few months.”

The 4th Inf. Div. and Fort Carson deploys forces throughout the world in support of contingency operations that enable U.S. national security.

Media interested in attending this event should RSVP by 4 p.m. Friday to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143/7525. Please note that the ceremony start time is subject to change.
