

Fort Carson Leaders (LDRS) Academy

Why: Prepares Fort Carson Army Civilians with leadership skills training, networking opportunities aimed at producing forward thinking, informed civilian leaders. LDRS Academy will consist of training classes and active participation in a working group. Guest speakers from USAG add real-time relevance to selected classes.

Who: Fort Carson Army Civilian employees and Local Community Partners

What: Conducted annually focusing on multiple leadership topics.

When: Jan – May. First week meeting daily 0800-1600hrs. Remaining classes meet twice a month (Thursdays), 0800-1200hrs.

Where: Forrest Resiliency Center, Bldg. #1843
Fort Carson Education Center, Bldg. #1117

Interested?

1. Talk to your supervisor and request an application.
2. Email completed application, date TBD to James.I.shelton14.civ@army.mil and Kimberly.a.henry.civ@army.mil
3. Up to 20 students will be selected.
4. You will receive an email letting you know if you have been selected.
5. If selected further emails will be sent out with special instructions regarding class requirements.

