Fort Carson hosts Connect-with-a-Vet hiring event

FORT CARSON, Colo. — Fort Carson's Transition Assistance Program invites service members, veterans, and military spouses to attend the Mountain Post's largest career hiring event of the year Feb. 20 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the William Reed Special Event Center located on post.

The Connect-with-a-Vet hiring event will feature over 80 local and national employers while also providing on-the-spot transition resources, such as resume support and professional headshots.

"We're excited to support our community members as they take their next steps in their career," said Sherry Jenkins, 28-year Air Force veteran and Fort Carson transition services manager. "We encourage those able to attend to take full advantage of the incredible resources afforded to the local military community."
