EACH open house highlights brain injury awareness

FORT CARSON, Colo. — The Fort Carson Intrepid Spirit Center will host an open house on March 21 from noon to 1 p.m., in support of the Defense Health Agency's Brain Injury Awareness Month campaign.

The Fort Carson Intrepid Spirit Center is a state-of-the-art treatment facility dedicated to the assessment and care of concussions and other forms of Brain Injuries.

The ISC's mission is to protect, treat, and optimize warfighter brain health. The ISC Team consists of medical, rehabilitation, and behavioral health experts in treating mild traumatic brain injury.

Visitors will learn about the ISC's innovative treatments, meet its team of experts, and discover how the center supports service members with a history of brain injuries using full-spectrum treatment options, to include art and music therapy.

Media with questions or those who are interested in attending this event should RSVP by 4 p.m. Thursday to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-7525. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
