FINAL REMINDER: Fort Carson hosts community day at PCMS

FORT CARSON, Colo. – The 4th Infantry Division and Fort Carson will host members of the southern Colorado during a community day at the Piñon Canyon Maneuver Site May 19 from 9 a.m. to noon.

The event will feature 4th Inf. Div. and Fort Carson leadership, Soldiers and military vehicles from the 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team, and Conservation Law-Enforcement Officers. Additionally, attendees can engage with Soldiers to learn about the Army's new Next Generation Command and Control ecosystem, which enables commanders to make more, faster and more informed decisions on the battlefield.

During the entire month of May 4th Inf. Div. Soldiers will conduct Ivy Mass, a training exercise that validates NGC2 warfighting functions across live and constructive environments at Fort Carson and PCMS. Ivy Mass is designed to stress every element of NGC2 at a Division scale and make the 4th Inf. Div. more lethal and prepared ahead of Project Convergence Capstone 6 at the National Training Center this summer.

The event will be held at PCMS's cantonment area along U.S. Highway 350. Media interested in attending this event are encouraged to RSVP to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office no later than 4 p.m. Monday by calling 719-526-4143/7525 or by responding to this email directly.
