U.S. ARMY

Army Recovery Care Program

Who is Eligible for Services?

ARCP
ARMY RECOVERY CARE PROGRAM

Seriously wounded, ill, injured

- Soldiers assigned / attached to a Soldier Recovery Unit (SRU).
- SRU Soldiers that medically retire from the Army and are placed on the Temporary Disability Retired List (TDRL)*.
- SMs who meet SRU criteria but elect to remain in their parent unit.

Severely wounded, ill, injured (Legacy)

- Active, Army National Guard (ARNG), U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) Soldiers if conditions and severity meet eligibility criteria.
- Soldier must have sustained wounds, illness, or injuries incurred in the line of duty (LOD) after 10 September 2001 and have received, or are expected to receive, at least a 30% Army disability rating from the Integrated Disability Evaluation System (IDES) for one of the following conditions:
  - Blindness or loss of vision
  - Loss of limb
  - Hearing loss or deafness
  - Burns or permanent disfigurement
  - Paralysis/Spinal cord injury
  - Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI)
  - Fatal or incurable disease with limited life expectancy one year or less

OR

- Receive a 30% IDES (Army) Disability rating for any other combat related condition, or condition caused by an instrumentality of war (Including PTSD and other Behavioral Health conditions)

OR

- Receive a combined 50% IDES (Army) Disability rating for any other combat related conditions, or conditions caused by an instrumentality of war

ARCCD
ARMY RECOVERY CARE COORDINATION DIVISION

*IAW DoDI 1300.24 – see notes

U.S. ARMY

Army Recovery Care Program

- RCCs are strategically embedded in major Army installations, Military Treatment Facilities (MTFs), Soldier Recovery Units (SRUs), VA Medical Centers, VA clinics and VA Polytrauma Rehabilitation Centers (PRCs) (Tampa, Fl., Richmond, Va., Minneapolis, Mn., Palo Alto, Ca., and San Antonio, Tx.), as well as National Guard and Army Reserve centers with coverage for all 50 states, four US territories and Europe. to assist wherever the Soldiers, Veterans, and their Families/Caregivers are located.

Mr. Kenneth W. Tate

Recovery Care Coordinator

kenneth.w.tate.civ@health.mil

Direct: (719)-526-2948

Mobile: (719)338-1793

Bldg 7494 Rm 320

Ms. Tennille Wren

Recovery care Coordinator

tennille.m.wren.civ@health.mi

Direct: (719) 524-7796

Mobile: (719-) 210-3014

Bldg 7494 Rm 210