Front Range Freedom Fest returns to Fort Carson

FORT CARSON, Colo. – The Colorado Springs community is invited to celebrate America's 250th birthday and Colorado's 150th birthday at Fort Carson's annual Front Range Freedom Fest July 3 from 4-10 p.m. at Iron Horse Park located on post.

Presented by Fort Carson's Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation, this year's celebration will include a live rock concert, festival entertainment, food trucks and activities for the whole family.

This year's concert will feature X Ambassadors and Bryce Vine with Tyler Hubbard as the event's headliner.

While this event is open to the public, patrons without an active military ID are required to either apply for a gate pass online or present an official ID at all open gates for lane-side vetting. Valid photo IDs are required for everyone 15 years or older.

For more information on parking, security and event details, visit https://carson.armymwr.com/freedomfest.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at 719-526-7525. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 719-526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
