Fort Carson hosts Spring Fest

FORT CARSON, Colo. – Fort Carson's fifth annual Spring Fest, hosted by the Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation, will be held April 26 from noon to 4 p.m. on the soccer fields located behind the Ivy Fitness Center.

The festival is an opportunity for the community to celebrate spring and the Month of the Military Child with local vendors and spring-time activities for the whole family. Additionally, a Purple Color 5K and one-mile run/walk will kick off at 12:30 p.m.

"What better way to welcome spring and celebrate the Month of the Military Child than with a day of sunshine, delicious food and endless fun for our military families," said Ryan Noble, Fort Carson DFMWR director. "Don't forget to wear purple for our Purple Color Run 5K and one-mile race in honor of the unique challenges military children face every day!"

The free event will feature a petting zoo, food trucks, local vendors, live music and more.

This event is open to the Fort Carson community and those who can access the installation.

Media with questions or those interested in covering this event should RSVP by 4 p.m. Friday to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4144/7525.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-7525. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
