Front Range Freedom Fest returns to Fort Carson

FORT CARSON, Colo. – Fort Carson's Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation will host the Front Range Freedom Fest June 28 from 4–10 p.m. at Iron Horse Park located on post.

The event will include a live rock concert featuring Default, Anberlin, and Vertical Horizon, as well as festival entertainment, food trucks and a fireworks show to end the night.

The event is free and open to the public. Patrons without installation access are encouraged to apply online for a gate pass in advance of the event. For those who do not preregister, a valid form of ID for anyone 15 years or older is required to access the event. All vehicles are subject to search.

While admission is free, fees will apply for attractions, food and merchandise.

For a complete schedule of events, parking details and installation access, visit <https://carson.armymwr.com/freedomfest>

Media with questions or those who are interested in covering this event should RSVP by 4 p.m. Friday to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143/7525.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143/7525. After hours please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at (719) 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
