Media Advisory 2nd Stryker Brigade Deploys to Southern Border

FORT CARSON, Colo. – Approximately 2,400 Soldiers from the 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, will deploy as an immediate augmentation of active-duty forces for the Southern Border Surge. They will carry out directed missions called for by the President to secure the southern border and protect and defend the territorial integrity of the United States. The unit will operate under the direction of the 10th Mountain Division's Joint Task Force and U.S. Northern Command.

"As we prepare to deploy in support of the Southern Border Mission, the Mountain Warriors are trained, equipped, and ready to answer the call," said Col. Hugh W. A. Jones, commander of the 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division. "We will work closely with our federal, state, and local partners to enhance security in the region, and we remain committed to executing this mission with professionalism and dedication."

These 4th Infantry Division Soldiers will join the active-duty personnel from the U.S. Army and other services who deployed to the southern border earlier this year.
