

99th RD

Family Programs

Army Reserve Family Programs (ARFP) is a comprehensive blend of quality of life programs for USAR Command Teams in support of Soldier and Family Readiness. Family Programs is a Commander's force multiplier for mission readiness. Family programs staff serve as the primary coordinating resource, who provide a multitude of unit and community-based services that foster the growth, development, and readiness of Soldiers and Families assigned to the Command.

Training

Provide briefings and trainings to support:

- Commanders
- Command Teams
- Soldier and Family Readiness Groups (SFRG)
- Volunteers
- Soldiers
- Families
- Community Partners

Support Resources

For Soldiers and Families to support resilience:

- Disaster Management
- Mental Health/Wellness
- Financial Readiness
- Employment
- Education
- Mobilization/Deployment
- Benefits
- Child & Youth

SFRG Assistance

Assistance and guidance for SFRGs, to include:

- Command Family Readiness Representative (CFRR)
- Fund Custodian
- SFRG Advisor/Volunteer
- Newsletter
- Volunteer Management
- Telephone/Email Chain
- Family Days/Events

Stay up-to-date on information and resources!

<https://www.facebook.com/99th-RD-Family-Programs-118878553406064>

@99thRDFamilyPrograms

Connect with us!

99rdfamilyprograms@gmail.com

Family Programs Team - Servicing New England!

Ms. Lee Mulcahey
Family Programs Director
lee.k.mulcahey.civ@army.mil
609-498-9446

Dr. Marisa Scanlon
Financial Literacy Specialist
marisa.b.scanlon.civ@army.mil
978-615-6861

*Typical office hours are M-F 0800-1600

For a copy of our Customer Rights and Responsibilities follow the QR Code

