2. The Military Equal Opportunity (MEO) program is a comprehensive effort to maximize human potential and to ensure fair treatment for all personnel. It is based on the principles of fairness, justice, and equality, and asserts that treatment of all persons is based on merit, performance, and potential in support of readiness. The MEO program applies to military personnel and Family Members, both on and off post during duty and non-duty hours, and within the limits of the Federal, State, and local laws. In the event a Soldier or Family Member wishes to file an MEO complaint, procedures for doing so are outlined in the Garrison Commander's Military Equal Opportunity Complaint Procedures Policy Letter.

3. The Army is a values-based organization where everyone is expected to do what is right by treating all persons as they should be treated-with dignity and respect. Hazing, bullying, and other behaviors that undermine dignity and respect are fundamentally in opposition to our values and are prohibited. This includes hazing and bullying committed physically, verbally, or through phone via voicemail or text messages, email, social media, or any other virtual or electronic medium. Every Servicemember and Civilian has the right to work and live in an environment free of hostility, as directed by the Army's policy on The Army Harassment Prevention and Response Program (hazing, bullying, and discriminatory harassment), AR 600-20, Para 4-19. Members of this command who believe they have been subjected to hazing and bullying may file a complaint with the Military Equal Opportunity Office.

4. The command will not retaliate against an individual who makes or prepares any protected MEO or Harassment related communication. Should a member of this command be threatened with reprisal, or if reprisal occurs, they must report these circumstances to the Inspector General office.
