

U.S. ARMY HAWAII

On-Post Dress Code

- Clean, properly fitted and well maintained clothing should be worn for a neat and orderly appearance.
- Shirts should provide conservative, complete coverage.
- Shorts and skirts should be of conservative length.
- Headgear should be worn appropriately, with bill to the front of the head and removed indoors.
- Recreation Areas: Athletic clothing and swimwear are only allowed in recreation areas.

- Wear no clothing that is excessively brief, short, revealing or tight, or excessively baggy or loose;
- Torn, ragged or dirty items;
- Contains obscene, discriminating, offensive or suggestive images or words;
- Is nightwear or sleepwear;
- Presents a paramilitary appearance or looks like a weapon;
- Is not specifically designed as headgear (such as bandannas, do-rags); and
- Is underwear as outerwear or is clearly visible, but should not be (like sports bra, boxers).

Failure to meet U.S. Army Hawaii Regulation 1, "U.S. Army Hawaii Standards and Discipline," will result in denied access to that service, area, activity or event.
