On the 23 March 2020, the Hawaii Governor issued a statewide shelter in place proclamation, effective 0001 on 25 March 2020 to 11:59 p.m. on 30 April 2020. Violation of the Honolulu Order or HI Proclamation is punishable by misdemeanor - $5,000 fine and/or one year in jail.

Soldiers (SM's) and Department of the Army Civilians (DAC) can travel from off-post residences to on-post facilities:

- Both the Order and Proclamation allow travel for SMs and DACs to and from their residence for the purposes of work required activities.

SMs and DACs, when off-post and off-duty, as well as Family Members must follow the Order and Proclamation:

- May leave residences to go to certain establishments needed for living, such as grocery stores, convenience stores, restaurants (takeout/delivery only), healthcare facilities, gas stations, banks. This includes driving to U.S. Army Hawaii Installations to go to the commissary, restaurants, and PX for necessary purchases.
- May engage in outdoor activities (maintaining social distancing) such as walking, hiking, running, ocean swimming and surfing.
- May leave residences for tasks for health and safety of family and pets, obtain necessary services and supplies, and to care for family/pets in another household—travel to locations to participate in these activities is authorized.
- Must maintain social distancing (6 ft. apart) in all activities as much as possible.
- Avoid ALL social gatherings outside of individuals in your residence—i.e. no house/barracks party; no social gathering on the beach; etc.
