Community Resource Guide

These CRG contain lists of resources available to members of US military communities. They do not provide exhaustive information about each resource. Instead, they provide just enough information for you to quickly determine what resources are available to serve your needs at a particular location. You can then use the phone numbers or web links included with each resource to get more detailed information.

USAHC-SB App

USAHC-SB mobile app is designed to provide easy access to services and information in support of maintaining optimal health and readiness. We provide you with up-to-date contact information for the clinics and services you use the most. Now you can log on to your Relay Health and TRICARE Online accounts without opening your browser.

App of the Month: Objective Zero

Objective Zero connects US military service members and Veterans to a nationwide peer support network via secure voice, video, and text. The app also connects Veterans to mental health, wellness, and Veteran-related resources. Register as a user to connect with the Objective Zero Ambassador network. Or, serve as an Ambassador to receive voice calls, video calls, and texts from Veterans. All Ambassadors receive basic suicide prevention training and access to advanced training.

Department of the Army Animal Policy

- Applicability:

- This policy applies to all Army installations and all types of Army housing to include Army owned, privatized, and leased.
- For the purpose of this directive, this policy applies only to privately owned animals, specifically those pets owned by Service Members, Government employees, Contractors, including all Family members and all visitors.
- This policy does not address control of department of Defense (DoD)-owned animals, e.g. Military working Dogs, Government-owned (non Department of Defense) animals, or Non-Appropriated Fund-owned animals (NAF owned animals) such as horses on Army installations.

- Background.

- This directive establishes a uniform policy, including minimum standards, for domestic animals on Army installations.
- This policy provides for the safety and welfare of all individuals on Army installations by providing Senior Commanders (SC) the flexibility to tailor their installation domestic animal policies to comply with their specific requirements.
- This directive incorporates the existing pet policy for Army privatized housing (reference 1.a.) and applies it to other types of housing in order to provide Soldiers and Families more predictability with regards to where they can house their pets as they move to different installations.

Department of the Army Animal Policy

General:

- The Senior Commander has authority over installation access for all animals, other than service dogs.
- All installations are required to have a domestic animal policy that adheres to the new policy and complies with all applicable federal, state, local laws and regulations, and all installation specific requirements associated with installation access, ownership, registration, control, and vaccination of domestic animals.
- Residents, employees, contractors, or visitors may not bring on any installation, any dog of a breed (including a mixed breed) that is deemed aggressive/dangerous or potentially aggressive/dangerous.
- For purposes of the policy, aggressive/dangerous or potentially aggressive/dangerous breeds of dogs are defined as Pit Bulls (American Staffordshire Bull Terriers or English Staffordshire Bull Terriers), Rottweilers, Doberman Pinschers, Chows, and wolf hybrids. This prohibition also extends to other dogs that demonstrate a propensity for dominant or aggressive/dangerous behavior as indicated by any of the following types of conduct:
 - Unprovoked barking, growling, or snarling when people are present.
 - Aggressively running along fence lines when people are present.
 - Biting or scratching people, or attacking other pets.
 - Escaping confinement or restriction to chase people.

Department of the Army Animal Policy

General (Con't):

- It is unauthorized to bring any exotic, wild, or farm species onto any installation Army-wide for other than official purposes.
- Examples of exotic, wild and farm species include but are not limited to the following: exotic animals, fish and reptiles such as alligators, electric eels, monkeys, piranhas, pufferfish, sharks, and snakes; wild animals and birds such as ferrets, foxes, hedgehogs, raccoons, rats, skunks, squirrels, owls, ostriches, and falcons; and farm animals and fowl such as pot-bellied pigs, goats, sheep, chickens, and geese.
- Prior written approval of the Installation Commander is required to bring exotic, wild, or farm species onto the Installation for official purposes.
- The installation access restrictions do not apply to service animals. However, if a particular service animal behaves in a way that demonstrate a propensity for dominant or aggressive/dangerous behavior, the animal may be barred from the installation at the direction of the installation Garrison Commander.
- If a Service Member has authorization to bring onto an installation (for example to receive veterinary services) a dog deemed aggressive/dangerous or potentially aggressive/dangerous, the dog must be muzzled at all times while on the installation.

Department of the Army Animal Policy

Family Housing:

- Army Privatized Family Housing must comply with this policy and installation specific domestic animal policies to the extent practical.
- Residents of Army Privatized Family Housing are limited to two dogs, two cats, or one dog and one cat.
- The privatized housing owner is authorized to waive the dog and cat limit after considering the needs of the animal owner/resident, impact to neighboring residents, the expense of additional wear and tear on the dwelling unit, any prior approved waivers, and if any of the dogs or cats are claimed by the animal owner to be a service animal, assistance animal, companion animal, emotional support animal, activity animal, or therapy animal.
