

Media Release

U.S. Army Garrison-Hawaii
Public Affairs Office
“Malama na Koa”

(808) 656-3154 / 656-3159

Release number: 2019-06-01

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Army to celebrate July 4th with full day of festivities

Musical performances include country singer Jordan Davis and Hawaii’s own Rebel SoulJahz

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Hawaii (June 27, 2019) — U.S. Army Hawaii will pay tribute to the brave men and women in the Armed Forces by hosting the 4th of July Spectacular, here, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. July 4.

This marks the 48th year the Army has hosted its “spectacular” celebration. The historical event is free and open to the public.

Musical performances kick off at 1 p.m. with Dita Holifield’s Hillbilly House, followed by Hawaii’s own Rebel SoulJahz, at 3:30 p.m. Headline performer Jordan Davis takes the stage at 5:30 p.m. performing his top country hits like “Singles You Up” and “Take it From Me.”

Other activities include a U.S. Army Special Operations Command parachute demonstration, carnival rides, games, food, a 50-state patriotic salute to the nation, and an awe-inspiring fireworks display to close out the night.

For a full listing of events, times and installation access and parking information, visit <https://hawaii.armymwr.com/calendar/event/4th-july-spectacular/2311728/27906>.

Installation Access and Parking

Visitors who do not possess a military ID should enter Schofield through Foote Gate on Kunia Road. Traffic control personnel will direct visitors to park on Watts Field, and a shuttle will take them to the event. All vehicle occupants 16 years of age and older must present a valid state or government photo ID, and the vehicle driver must provide a current driver's license, vehicle registration, proof of insurance and safety check. Coolers, backpacks and bags are subject to inspection. No pets or glass bottles are permitted.