

U.S. Army Hawaii Covenant with Native Hawaiians

We Recognize.....

- ...The Native Hawaiians are nā kanaka 'ōiwi Hawai'i...the aboriginal peoples of Hawai'i
- ...Native Hawaiians' cultural and historical experience is shaped by the land and surrounding ocean ...that as the Army maintains and uses the land of Hawaii, it is mindful to protect and preserve this fragile environment and ensure that what remains is a meaningful legacy for future generations..

We are Committed to a mutually beneficial relationship between Native Hawaiians and the U.S. Army, Hawai'i by:

- Enhancing education and understanding of Native Hawaiian issues, culture, values to Army agency staff
- Enhancing education and understanding of Army values, culture and actions to the Native Hawaiian community
- Leveraging opportunities for proactive dialogue between the Army and Native Hawaiians

We are Committed to:

Providing sustainable installation support and services for Joint Warfighters, our Army Families, and the military community that meets current and future mission requirements, safeguards human health, improves quality of life and enhances the natural environment;

Providing proactive dialogue with Native Hawaiians to ensure the meaningful exchange of information and to enable sound, informed decisions by the Army that respects the legacy of the Native people of Hawai'i while meeting the mission and goals of the Army;

Building a partnership between the Native Hawaiian community and the U.S. Army, a relationship that promotes mutual cooperation, understanding and enhances the standing of each within the community
