International Spouse Cookbook

Fort Huachuca

FORWARD

The military has such a diverse population, and our International Spouses bring flavor to our military community! This cookbook has recipes from around the world and is going to bring all those wonderful flavors to your kitchen. The Soldier & Family Readiness Center's Conversational English class want to share some of their favorite recipes from their country. Each section of the cookbook will focus on a different country and provide some background about the dish.

The Conversational English classes at the Soldier & Family Readiness Center provide a safe and fun environment for our International Spouses to practice their English and to learn about the Army way of life. To learn more about this program please call 520-533-2330 or visit us at 50010 Smith Ave. Fort Huachuca AZ. We hope that you enjoy this gift to the Fort Huachuca community from our wonderful International Spouses!

AFGHANISTAN

National Language: Dari and Pashto

Afghan cuisine is influenced by Persian and Central Asian cuisine due to Afghanistan's proximity and cultural ties. The cuisine is mainly based on Afghanistan's main crops, such as wheat, maize, barley, and rice. Accompanying these staple grains are native fruits, vegetables, and dairy products, such as milk, yogurt, whey, pomegranates, grapes, and sweet melons. The national dish of Afghanistan is Kabuli palaw, a rice dish cooked with raisins, carrots, nuts and lamb or beef.

AFGHAN MANTOU

SERVING: 4 PORTIONS | PREP TIME: 45 MINUTES |COOK TIME: 30 MINUTES

Afghan Mantou, is one of the most beloved dishes of the Afghan people. The savory little dumplings are often served for celebrations, but can also be vendors

Ingredients

Dough: 4 cups of flour, 2 eggs, 3tbsp oil, 2tbsp salt, water.

Fillina: 600gr minced beef, 2 medium sized chopped onions, 1tbsp garlic paste, 1tsp red chili powder, 2tsp coriander powder, 1.5tbsp salt, 3tbsp oil.

Red sauce: 3 chopped tomatoes, half cup of water, salt, black pepper, paprika, coriander powder (to taste).

Yogurt sauce: 1/2 cup of yogurt, 5tbsp of water, 1/2 tsp salt, two grounded cloves garlic.

Directions

Making the Dough: add flour to the bowl. Add salt, oil and eggs mix well. Slowly add the water to make the dough. Knead for 10 to 12 minutes until smooth and elastic. Leave it for 30 minutes. And then cut the dough into parts. Next, roll it found at many markets and street as thin as possible, and cut it into square shaped wonton sheets.

> Filling: add 4 tbls oil in a pan, add 600 gr minced beef to the oil and stir them well. Add 1tbsp garlic paste, 1tsp chili powder, 1tsp coriander powder, 1tbsp salt to the meat and mix them well, then cook for 9 to 10 minutes in high heat. Now, add chopped onions to the meat and mix them well. Now our filling for Mantou is ready!

Making the red sauce: add 3tbsp oil in the pan, add 3 chopped tomatoes, salt, black pepper, paprika, coriander powder and half cup of water. Mix them well, let it cook and simmer for about 20 minutes, it should not be very thick or watery.

Making the yogurt sauce: pour <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> cup yogurt into a bowl. add 5tbsp of water, half tsp salt and two grounded cloves of garlic paste to yogurt and mix them well.

How to wrap the Afghan ravioli?

Put 1tbsp of the filling in the center of a wrapper.

Dip your finger into water and moisture the corner of the wrapper. Overlay the opposite corners on each other and press them. Then grab the existing corners and press them. Seal the edges on each other.

Repeat this step and wrap all of the dumplings.

Bring a pot of water. Heat them till boiling. Put the steamer basket on the pot. The water should not touch the steamer. Place the Afghan ravioli in the steamer. Cover it and let it steam for 30 minutes till Mantou's raviolis is tender and soft.

National Language: Portuguese

Brazilian cuisine is characterized by European, Amerindian, African, and Asian influences. It varies greatly by region, reflecting the country's mix of native and immigrant populations, and its continental size as well.

This has created a national cuisine marked by the preservation of regional differences. Ingredients first used by native peoples in Brazil include cashews, cassava, guaraná, açaí, cumaru, and tucupi. From there, the many waves of immigrants brought some of their typical dishes, replacing missing ingredients with local equivalents.

The country's national dish is Feijoada, the national beverage is coffee while cachaça is Brazil's native liquor.

National Language: Filipino and English.

Philippines cuisine is a combination of Spanish, Chinese, Japanese, Arab, Malaya, American and other Asian and Latin Influences. Filipino cuisine is distinguished by its bold combination of sweet, sour, and salty flavors. While other Asian cuisines may be known for a more subtle delivery and presentation, Filipino cuisine is often delivered all at once in a single presentation. Filipinos use herbs and spices found in all the islands to season their dishes. A variety of fruits and vegetables are often used in cooking. Bananas, guavas, mangoes, papayas, and pineapples lend a distinctly tropical flair in many dishes Rice is the staple food in the Philippines. The Philippines is famous for their pancit (noodles) and it was influenced by the Chinese. The Filipinos added their own twist and it's quite delicious. pig).

PHILIPPINES LUMPIA

PREP TIME: 1 HRS | COOK TIME: 5-7 MINUTES

Lumpia is a popular snack in the Philippines or dish at every gathering and special celebration. You can use different types of meat, but this recipe uses ground chicken. You can modify ingredients to your taste. Filling can be made a day ahead and stored covered in the fridge, for the ingredients to fully combine, but it's not necessary.

Ingredients:

- 3 lbs ground chicken
- 16 oz bag baby carrots
- 16 oz container white mushrooms
- 4 green onions
- 1 bunch of cilantro
- 2 eggs
- 1 8oz can of water chestnuts
- 1 tsp ground black pepper
- 2 tsp salt
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 2-4 25 pack extra thin wrappers (thawed)
- Paste: 1c water and 2 tbsp. flour

Directions:

- 1. Place ground chicken in a colander for any moisture to drain. If the filling is soggy, it will make the wrapper soggy.
- 2. Mince separately carrots, mushrooms, and chestnuts in food processor and add to the ground chicken.
- 3. Discard bottom inch of green onions, chop and add to ground chicken mixture. Discard stems of cilantro, chop, and add to ground chicken mixture.
- 4. Add the eggs and seasoning to ground chicken mixture. Mix all ingredients.
- 5. Place mixture in a zip top bag or a pastry bag, this helps control the thickness of the lumpia. You can also use a spoon to place the mixture on the wrapper.
- While the mixture sits, prepare the wrappers. Use scissors or a knife to cut the squares diagonally. You can place a damp paper towel on top of wrappers to make sure the wrappers don't dry out.
- 7. Place triangular wrapper with the long edge facing you and pipe or spoon 1 tbsp of filling in middle of wrapper toward the bottom. Fold over the left corner to the end covering the filling and the same for the right corner. Roll the filling tightly away from you, use the paste (should be a little watery, not too thick) to seal the top corner.
- Heat oil over medium heat (375 degrees F), about 1/2" deep. Carefully place 5-6 lumpia at a time depending on how big the frying pan is that you're using. Fry for 3 minutes on each side or until both sides are golden brown.

- 9. Remove from the oil and drain on paper towels.
- 10. Serve with sweet and sour sauce.

Below: How to cut wrappers and place filling.

**You can freeze the lumpia on a baking sheet and after they are frozen place them in freezer bags. They will keep for 6 months or longer if stored properly. They can be air fried from leftovers, but only after deep-frying first.

SPAIN

National Language: Spanish

Spanish cuisine is loved throughout the world for its mouthwatering flavors and the use of fresh, local ingredients. Olive oil (of which Spain is the world's largest producer) is heavily used in their dishes. Many dishes are prepared today using the same cooking methods and ingredients as they were two or three hundred years ago.

The two basic ingredients of Spanish food are olive oil and garlic. Some other typical ingredients are fish and seafood, cheese, ham and sausages, beef, lamb and pork, eggs and chicken.

Spain is one of the major European wine regions and there are thousands of vineyards. Sangria is probably the most famous Spanish drink ever – which is a mix of red wine, chopped fresh sweet fruits, orange juice, or brandy.

Ingredients

For The Börek Cases

- 3 sheets fresh yufka or the equivalent in phyllo pastry
- 1 egg beaten together with a splash of milk
- sunflower oil or canola oil for deep frying

For The Börek Cheese Filling

- 300 g börek cheese crumbled feta cheese can be a substitute
- 1 medium red onion very finely chopped
- 1 red capsicum pepper deseeded & very finely chopped
- 1 egg beaten
- 1/2 bunch flat leaf parsley very finely chopped

Directions

For The Börek Cases

- On a hard, flat surface, take one sheet of yufka and fold it in half.
- Have the straight flat side facing away from you.
- With a sharp knife, start around 4 inches in from the top left and cut diagonally downwards to the bottom left to make a triangle.
- Now go back to the top point and cut down diagonally to the right so that you have a curved triangular base, again, of around 4 inches.
- Keep going until you reach the end of your yufka sheet, and you have a series of triangles of roughly similar sizes (they don't need to be exact).
- Separate your yufka triangles and cover with a plastic bag or damp cloth so they don't dry out.

For The Börek Cheese Filling

• Take all your ingredients and mix them together, thoroughly, in a bowl.

GERMANY

National Language: German

German cuisine might be associated with two things – potatoes and sauerkraut – there is much more to it than meets the eye. In fact, German cuisine is made up of many different local or regional cuisines, reflecting the country's federal history. Germany itself is part of the larger cultural region of Central Europe, sharing many culinary traditions with neighboring countries such as Poland and the Czech Republic.

Beer is very common throughout all parts of Germany, with many local and regional breweries producing a wide variety of beers. The pale lager pilsner, a style developed in the mid-19th century, is predominant in most parts of the country today.

Wienerschnitzel mit Bratkartoffeln | BREADED PORK CUTLET WITH HOME FRIES

SERVING: 4 PORTIONS | PREP TIME: 10 MIN | COOK TIME: 30 MIN

Breaded schnitzel is popular in many countries and is made using veal, pork, chicken, mutton, beef, or turkey

Ingredients for the Weiner Schnitzel:

- 4 boneless pork chops or Chicken breast
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 tsp. paprika
- 1/4 tsp ground black pepper
- 1 egg, beaten
- 2 tbsp milk
- 3/4 cup panko breadcrumbs
- 6 tbsp vegetable oil.

Ingredients for the Bratkartoffeln:

- 1 1/2 pounds new baby potatoes, boiled in skin and cooled
- 4 lardons bacon, diced (optional)
- salt and pepper to taste
- Fresh parsley for decoration

Directions

- Use a meat mallet to pound the pork cutlets to 1/4-1/8-inch thickness. Cut small slits around the edges of the cutlets to prevent curling.
- Set out 3 shallow bowls. One with a mixture of the flour, salt and pepper, the second with the egg and milk whisked together and the third with a mixture of the panko and paprika.
- Heat the olive oil in a large skillet on medium high heat. Dredge the cutlets first in the seasoned flour, then dip the cutlets in the egg mixture, and then into the mixture of breadcrumbs and paprika. Working in batches, sauté the cutlets for 3-4 minutes on each side. Remove the cutlets from the skillet and cover with foil or place in a warm oven to keep warm.
- For the bratkartoffeln, peel and cut the potatoes into small slices. Heat a medium skillet to render the bacon. When the bacon is not quite crispy, remove from the pan (leave the bacon fat) and add the vegetable oil. Once oil is hot, add the potatoes and very gently sauté (don't move them too much as the slices will break apart) until golden brown, about 8-10 minutes. For the last few minutes, return the bacon pieces to the mixture. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Directions:

- Place freshly made rice in a large bowl. Mix in salt, sesame oil and sesame seeds and mix with a rice spoon. Let the rice cool and set aside.
- Sauté carrots with ¼ teaspoon of salt and little bit of oil and set aside.
- Crack 3 eggs in a bowl and bear it with a fork to mix.
- On a non-stick pan spread the egg mixture so it fills the pan. Keep it on a medium low heat. When the bottom of the egg is cooked, flip it over with a spatula. Once cooked, remove from heat and set aside to cool it down (egg should not be overcooked).
- Cut the egg into 1/2 inch wide strips.
- Cut the cucumber in half and remove seeds. Cucumber should be cut into ½ inch wide strips.
- Half the sticks of the imitation crab and set aside.
- Place a sheet of seaweed on the rolling mat with the shiny side down.
- Evenly spread out <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cup of cooked rice over top of it, leaving about 2 inches uncovered on one side of the seaweed.
- Place cucumber, egg, imitation crab, and carrots in the center of the rice.
- Use both hands to roll the mat over the fillings, so one edge of the rice and seaweed reached the opposite edge.
- Grab the mat with both hands and press it tightly as you continue rolling the gimbap. Push out the mat as you roll so it doesn't ger wrapped in the gimbap.
- Remove the roll from the mat at the end and set the finished roll aside with the seam down.
- Repeat for other rolls. Cut rolls into ¼ inches bites size – enjoy.

JAPCHAE – KOREAN NOODLES

SERVING: 6 SERVINGS | PREP TIME: 20 MINUTES | COOK TIME: 55 MINUTES

Japchae is a simple Korean noodle dish packed with a rainbow of vegetables and accented with a hit of flank steak. Japchae is made with Korean potato starch glass noodles, which are surprisingly light and gluten-free

Ingredients

- 6 ounces flank steak cut into thin strips
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 6 teaspoons sugar
- <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> teaspoon black pepper
- 4<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 teaspoon sesame oil (plus 2 tablespoons, divided)
- 1 onion (sliced thinly)
- 2 carrots (julienned)
- 4 fresh shiitake mushrooms (cut into thin strips)
- 1 small red bell pepper (cut into thin strips)
- 4 ounces baby spinach (115g, about 3 large handfuls)
- 3 scallions (cut into 3-inch sections and thinly sliced)
- 10 ounces 280g dangmyeon (sweet potato starch noodles)
- Vegetable oil
- 1 tablespoon toasted sesame seeds

DIRECTIONS

- 1. Mix the beef together with 1 clove of the garlic, 1 teaspoon sugar, <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 tablespoon soy sauce, and 1 teaspoon of sesame oil.
- Prepare the vegetables and set aside. Cook the noodles for 7 minutes in a large pot of boiling water. Strain and cut with scissors so that they're a little shorter. Add 1 tablespoon sesame oil, 1 tablespoon soy sauce, and 2 teaspoons sugar to the noodles. Toss thoroughly.
- 3. Heat up a skillet over medium high heat. Stir-fry the onion and carrot with 1 tablespoon of vegetable oil until tender, but still a little crunchy. Transfer to a large mixing bowl. Add another tablespoon of oil to the pan and add the mushrooms. Cook until caramelized, and transfer to the mixing bowl along with the onion and carrot. Add another tablespoon of oil to the red peppers until tender. Add in the spinach, scallions, and the remaining garlic. Cook the entire mixture until the scallions and spinach are wilted. Transfer to the mixing bowl with the other vegetables.

4. Turn up your heat to high and add the beef to the pan. Stir-fry for a couple minutes until the beef is no longer pink. Transfer the noodles and the beef to the mixing bowl, along with the sesame seeds.

5. Add 3 teaspoons sugar, ½ teaspoon ground black pepper, 2 1/2 tablespoons soy sauce, and 1 tablespoon of sesame oil to the mixing bowl full of ingredients. Toss to combine all the ingredients together and serve.

KIMICHI PANCAKE

SERVING: 8 SERVINGS | PREP TIME: 20 MINUTES | COOK TIME: 40 MINUTES

Kimchi pancake is made from a simple batter of kimchi, scallions, salt, and water fried to a crispy pancake in the skillet and served with a dipping sauce.

Ingredients

For The Pancake:

- <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> cup all-purpose flour
- <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> cup potato starch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup cabbage kimchi (roughly chopped)
- ½ cup kimchi juice
- 3 tablespoons water
- 1 scallion (chopped)
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 teaspoon toasted sesame seeds

For The Dipping Sauce:

- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 teaspoon rice vinegar
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon sesame oil

DIRECTIONS:

- 1. In a large bowl, combine the flour, potato starch, and salt until combined. Add the kimchi, kimchi juice, water, and scallion. Use a pair of chopsticks or a fork to stir the mixture until well-combined.
- 2. Heat a nonstick or cast-iron pan over medium high heat. Add 2 tablespoons vegetable oil and add the batter to the pan, spreading it in an even layer. Fry until browned on one side. Flip the pancake and continue to cook until browned on the other side.
- 3. Meanwhile, assemble the dipping sauce by combining the sauce ingredients in a small bowl. Serve alongside the pancake.

BEEF AND KIMICHI FRIED RICE

SERVING: 4 SERVINGS | PREP TIME: 10 MINUTES | COOK TIME: 25 MINUTES

This kimchi fried rice includes beef and a luscious runny egg on top. You can use brown or white rice.

Ingredients

For The Beef and Marinade:

- 1 cup thinly sliced beef
- 1 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch
- ½ teaspoon sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon soy sauce
- ¼ teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon shaoxing wine

To Cook the Fried Rice:

- 4 eggs
- 3 tablespoons oil (divided)
- 1 medium onion (finely chopped)
- 1 red bell pepper (chopped; you can also use a red long hot pepper if you like heat)
- 1 1/2 cups kimchi (coarsely chopped)
- 4 cups cooked white rice (or brown rice)
- Salt (to taste)
- 1/2 teaspoon sesame oil
- <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> cup scallion (chopped)
- Korean chili flakes (to taste; optional)

Directions:

1. In a bowl, mix the beef and marinade ingredients and set aside for at least 15 minutes.

2. Right before you're ready to make your rice, cook the eggs sunny side up in a pan, and keep them warm while you're making the rice. Make sure the yolks stay runny!

3. Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a wok over high heat. Once the wok starts to smoke, sear the beef and then set it aside on a plate.

4. Add another tablespoon of oil to the wok and cook the onion until it's translucent. Add the peppers and cook for another minute, and then add the kimchi. Stir everything together well, and add the rice, stirring constantly.

5. Add the cooked beef back to the wok, along with salt to taste, sesame oil, scallions and a pinch of chili flakes for extra heat. Thoroughly mix everything together and serve with your eggs.
