MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Command Policy #14, Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO)

1. Reference.

- a. AR 690-600, Equal Employment Opportunity Discrimination Complaints, 9 February 2004.
- b. AR 690-12, Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity, 22 December 2016.
- c. 29 CFR 1614.102, Agency Program, 25 July 2012.
- d. Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive 110 (EEO MD-110), 5 August 2015.

2. Background. The United States Army Garrison - Humphreys (USAG-Humphreys) is fully committed to the EEO principles. We expect each leader, manager, and supervisor to be as committed as we are to the Army's vision of becoming a "model employer with a diverse workforce founded upon equality of opportunity". All leaders will comply with federal laws and Department of Army regulations prohibiting unlawful discrimination in the work place, and assist in ensuring that equal opportunity in employment remains the standard throughout the USAG-Humphreys area of responsibility.

3. Intent. Equal opportunity and an environment free from unlawful discrimination and harassment are essential to the fulfillment of our mission requirements, and it ensures all civilian employees are afforded the opportunity to achieve their full potential. Our mission can only be accomplished in an environment of mutual respect, dignity, and fair treatment. In order to foster this environment, leaders must ensure that employment decisions are based solely on merit system principles.

4. Definitions. It is the policy of this command to provide equal employment opportunities, without regard to race, color, sex (including pregnancy, sexual harassment, gender identity, and sexual orientation), national origin, age (40 and over), reprisal (for prior EEO activity), religion, disability (physical or mental), and genetic information (Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, (GINA)), for all Civilian employees, former employees, and applicants for employment.

5. Policy. Unlawful discriminatory factors or practices are not to enter the decision making process for job selection, work assignment, awards, training, or discipline.
