FINANCIAL-BASED RESOURCES

ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF

Provides an interest-free loan equal to the amount of one net paycheck, up to a maximum amount of $6,000, for soldiers and families who experience financial hardship due to lack of pay. Soldiers must repay the full amount within 30 days, and will begin on Oct. 30, after they receive back pay following the government shutdown. AER now offers online applications for loans.

<https://www.armyemergencyrelief.org/loans/>

FINANCIAL READINESS PROGRAM

Financial Counselors can help review your budgets and prioritize essential expenses. They can provide education on managing bills, communicating with creditors, and exploring available relief options. This support helps reduce stress and maintain financial stability during pay disruptions.

<https://www.armymwr.com/programs-and-services/personal-assistance/financial-readiness>

USAA

Members who are employed by a federal agency that's been affected and have received an eligible direct deposit into a USAA checking or savings account within 30 days prior to the beginning of the shutdown will be able to apply for a zero-interest loan equal to the amount of one net pay check, up to $6,000. Members may also be able to set up special payment arrangements for auto and property insurance premiums, life and health insurance premiums, credit cards, consumer loans, home equity lines of credit, and other credit.

<https://www.usaa.com/support/government-shutdown-program/>

COMMISSARY

Offering 0% interest for three months for all commissary purchases worldwide made using a MILITARY STAR card from Oct. 1 to Oct. 31 for all new and existing cardholders.

WARRIOR FOOD PANTRY

Serving all military families in need by providing dry goods, baby items, disposable cutlery, and hygiene items. Located at 1009 Talon Street and open M, W, F 1000-1400

NAVY FEDERAL

Eligible members with direct deposit of pay who are service members, federal government employees and federal government contractors paid directly by the federal government may be eligible for a loan with zero interest or fees. Loan amounts of up to $6,000 are calculated based on the most recent direct deposit. Once direct deposit of pay resumes, the amount credited to the account will be deducted automatically as repayment.

<https://www.navyfederal.org/about/government-shutdown.html?msocid=31e77b83ff056fa53f-1c6d0afe926eda>

CHAPLAIN SERVICES

Provides emotional and spiritual support to military members and their families. They offer counseling, prayer, and confidential guidance to help manage stress or uncertainty. Chaplains can also connect families with community and relief resources available on post.

<https://home.army.mil/humphreys/about/garrison/religious-support-office>

WIC/SNAP

Helps eligible families cover essential food needs. WIC Overseas provides formula and nutrition support for eligible women and children, while SNAP offer funds to offset grocery expenses. These programs help ease financial stress until normal pay or operations resume.

DFMWR - ACS: Financial Readiness Program (FRP)

Financial Readiness for the Holidays: Making Spirits Bright, Not Budgets Tight

The Season of Spending: Knowing Where the Money Goes

Track holiday related expenses in clear categories (travel, gifts, food, utilities). Understanding spending patterns is the foundation of financial literacy and helps identify habits that can inform next year's planning.

The Cost of Cheer: How Credit Really Works During The Holidays

Learn how interest accumulation and credit utilization impacts your long-term financial health. Using 30% or less of available credit supports stronger overall credit management.

Sleigh Your Savings: Planning Ahead for Next Year's Holiday Season

Start a holiday savings fund early in the year, even if contributions are small. Understanding how systematic savings and automatic transfers work teaches consistency and helps spread out costs instead of facing them all at once.

Gifts That Give Back: Using Military Resources Wisely

Understanding how and when programs (Commissary savings, Military Exchange discounts, FRP, and Army Emergency Relief) apply helps families plan without unnecessary financial strain.

Make the ACS Financial Readiness Program part of your holiday tradition!
Schedule an individual appointment to learn more about spending awareness, saving strategies, and resources for military families!

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING

Winter can be a prime time for carbon monoxide poisoning as people turn on their heating systems and warm their cars in garages. So as the weather turns colder, it's important to take extra precautions.

Open the garage door prior to starting your vehicle in the garage.

Use caution when operating space heaters, wood stoves and gas logs.

Ensure the space is well ventilated and clear.

Carbon monoxide detectors save lives. Every year, over 400 people die in the U.S., and 50,000 are treated for carbon monoxide poisoning.

If an alarm sounds, move to fresh air and call 9-1-1.

The most common symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning are often described as "flu-like"-headache, dizziness, weakness, upset stomach, vomiting, chest pain and confusion.

TIP: Install a battery-operated or battery-backup carbon monoxide detector in the hallway near each separate sleeping area in your home. Check or replace the battery when you change the time on your clocks each spring and fall and replace the detector every five years.

10 WINTER SAFETY DRIVING TIPS

- NEVER DRINK AND DRIVE
If you're going to drink, have a plan to call for a ride or have a designated driver and give them your keys BEFORE you start drinking.
- UNDERSTAND HOW BLOOD ALCOHOL CONCENTRATION AFFECTS YOU
The BAC from one alcoholic drink varies from person to person. You can be within the legal limit in your state, and still have some loss of judgment, an altered mood and feel more relaxed. Know your limits and play it safe!
- DON'T DRIVE DISTRACTED
Distracted driving is any activity that diverts attention from driving, including talking or texting on your phone, etc.
- DRIVE SAFELY AS IT GETS DARKER
Daylight Savings Time ends every year on the first Sunday in November. This time change means it starts getting dark earlier.
- USE A ROAD TRIP CHECKLIST
Start every trip well-rested. Drive during daylight hours. Schedule breaks every two hours. Never drink and drive. Pull over if you get tired.
- DON'T DRIVE FATIGUED
Fatigue is a killer and drowsy driving puts everyone on the road at risk.
- PREPARE YOUR VEHICLE FOR WINTER
Check your tires, antifreeze levels and battery health, etc., before driving in wintry conditions.
- WHAT SHOULD YOU KEEP IN YOUR VEHICLE?
A properly inflated spare tire, wheel wrench, and a car jack.
- LOOK OUT FOR ROAD HAZARDS
Plan for changing weather and road conditions. Check conditions before you go. Take it slow in ice and snow.
- KNOW WHAT TO DO IN A WINTER EMERGENCY
If you are stopped or stalled in wintry weather, stay with your car and don't overexert yourself. Put bright markers on the antenna or windows. To avoid carbon monoxide poisoning, don't run the car for long periods of time with windows up. Clear the exhaust pipe of any snow and only run it occasionally to keep warm.

Winter Car Kit Checklist

- ☐ small broom

- ☐ water
- ☐ jumper cables
- ☐ flares and matches
- ☐ shovel

BDAACH MSU/ICU – New Tele-Critical Care (TCC) Program

As of October 15th, 2025 Brian D. Allgood Army Community Hospital joined the DHA's Joint Tele-Critical Care Network, integrating Tele-ICU capabilities within the MTF.

Like the civilian community, there is a shortage of intensivists (critical care) in military medicine. As a result, tele-critical care services have been implemented in numerous hospitals in the U.S.

The JTCCN provides critical care support provided by doctors and nurses located at hub sites to on-site staff and patients via high-definition video-conference technology. The JTCCN currently provides services to 26 MTF's covering 135 beds.

BDAACH's ICU teams now have access to 24/7 Tele-Critical Care support from board-certified intensivists and critical care nurses located at Naval Medical Center San Diego, Brooke Army Medical Center, and Walter Reed National Military Medical Center.

This approach to critical care has been shown to decrease ICU length of stay and allows the facility to retain high-acuity patients as opposed to transferring directly to local Host Nation Hospitals.

WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Army Directive 2025-18 (Appearance, Grooming, and Army Body Composition Program Standards)

1. References.

- a. Army Regulation (AR) 600-8-2 (Suspension of Favorable Personnel Actions (Flag)), 5 April 2021
- b. AR 600-9 (The Army Body Composition Program), 16 July 2019
- c. AR 670-1 (Wear and Appearance of Army Uniforms and Insignia), 26 January 2021

2. Purpose. This directive establishes updated policy for appearance, grooming, body composition, and uniform wear standards, emphasizing military appearance as a reflection of discipline, professionalism, and a shared commitment to the Army's values. The intent of this directive is to reinforce uniformity and discipline while fostering consistency and professionalism across the Army.

3. Applicability. This directive applies to the Regular Army, Army National Guard/Army National Guard of the United States, and U.S. Army Reserve.

4. Policy. Within 30 days of the date of this directive, all Soldiers will be required to meet the appearance, grooming, and body composition standards in this directive. This period serves as a transition to facilitate understanding and compliance for both Soldiers and leadership. All Soldiers will comply with hair, fingernail, grooming, and body composition policies while in any military uniform or while on duty in civilian attire. The standards for appearance, grooming, and body composition are necessary to maintain uniformity and discipline, which are fundamental to military service.

a. Adhering to policies and regulations regarding appearance, including uniform wear and grooming standards, demonstrates a shared commitment to maintaining a professional military appearance. A well-maintained military appearance reflects disciplined attention to detail, respect for authority, and pride in oneself and the Army that are critical to building cohesive teams and enabling an effective warfighting organization. Commanders, supported by the noncommissioned officer support chain, will enforce the standards prescribed in enclosure 1 (Personal Appearance Policies) and enclosure 2 (Wear of Army Uniforms and Insignia).

Pumpkin Puree

Sugar-free canned pumpkin is great for your pup's gut!

The added butter and cream can cause diarrhea for dogs.

Stuffing

Onions, garlic, salt and other spices can be harmful to dogs.

Corn on the Cob

The cob can cause life-threatening obstructions.

Pecans

Try tapping the hood of your car before starting your engine

Protect your pooches paws

Check and wipe paws after walks to protect against harsher weather

Antifreeze is poisonous to cats and dogs

Keep antifreeze out of reach of pets and clean up any spills

Happy Holidays from AMC

Ensure your pet has plenty of water that won't freeze.
