Bottom: Children tell us why the resurrection matters and excites them

Summary: On 25 March 2018, the USAG Ansbach Protestant conducted an Easter musical. This event was led by our Protestant Religious Education Coordinator and had 23 children participate in front of a crowd of 157. The musical lasted thirty minutes and include five songs along with four spoken word segments about Jesus' resurrection and our hope in Him. Many parents were blessed and encouraged by seeing these children use their talent for the Lord. This event emphasized the Garrison Commander's line of effort Ready and Resilient and reinforced the Garrison Chaplain's priority of accomplishing the mission the right way and personal development.
