

USAG Ansbach 2018 Christmas Gathering

Our Catholic and Protestant congregation were enjoying their time together and shared each other's interesting. They get to know each other and shared common ground to support each other.

Summary: On 15 DEC 2018, the USAG Ansbach Catholic and Protestant conducted a Christmas Gathering in the Fellowship Hall of Katterbach Chapel. This is the first event which both congregation join together and shared common goal and interesting since 2012. Protestant and Catholic Religious Education Coordinators put this event together to maximize communication between two services. It was well received event and more than 70 people came and joined to celebrate Christmas spirit. This event emphasized the Garrison Commander's line of effort Ready and Resilient and reinforced the IMCOM-E Command Chaplain's priority of accomplishing the mission the right way and personal development.

PREC and CREC contractors put this event together and children from both Catholic and Protestant participated the event.
