

USAG Ansbach RSO building relationship with the German Army Language School

CH (MAJ) Moras provides invocation to the group.

Mr. Gavle, volunteer, speaks with the German Army School Students.

Mr. Bohm, Deputy Director of School, speaks with volunteers and students.

Summary: Under the Garrison Commander's initiative project, USAG Ansbach RSO hosted an exchange program and relationship building event with 46 faculties and students from the German Army Language School, Ellwangen. 15 volunteers from the Garrison community participated in the event and had a wonderful and productive time with host nation students. USAG Ansbach Garrison and the German Language School students and faculty had opportunities to share with each other information on their personal, family, studies, career, hobbies and future goals. The event such as this enhances trust, friendship, and camaraderie with partner nations. The Deputy Director of School, Dr. Bohm, said "The joy and happiness was visible on the faces of our students. Your hospitality was overwhelming and your organization of the whole event very professional. We consider ourselves really lucky to know you and to have the privilege of conducting such an enriching as well as touching cultural and spiritual exchange with you." This event emphasized the Garrison Commander's line of effort Ready and Resilient and reinforced the IMCOM-E Command Chaplain's priority of accomplishing the mission the right way and team building.

Ms. Gavle, Deputy Garrison Commander, delivers welcome remark behalf of the Garrison Commander, COL Pierce, to the German Army Language School.

POC: CH (LTC) Suk Kim, suk.kim.mil@mail.mil DSN (314) 467-2544