

Monthly UMT TNG: Building Connections to Deepen Trust

WHO: Wiesbaden's Unit Ministry Teams (UMTs) and a diverse panel of 6 leaders from across our footprint

WHAT: Monthly UMT TNG with fellow care-providers

WHEN/WHERE: 28 January 0900-1145 in Clay chapel

SUMMARY: Our guest panel of leaders advised and provided feedback on three specific plans for UMTs to address trends in Wiesbaden on ethics, morale, relationships, religion, spirituality, etc. The panel consisted of CPT Justin Brooks (HHC Commander for USAG Wiesbaden), Dr. Jamie Moore (Chief of our Behavior Health), Carmen Arbogast (Counselor for our Family Advocacy Program), Blanca Cook (President of our Catholic Women of the Chapel), Logan Wells (Director for our Club Beyond), and Chris Stephenson (Director for our Cadence Hospitality House). Three groups of UMTs took the panel's input to form their plans focused on different demographics in Wiesbaden to strengthen Army Core Values. The panel and UMTs voiced many benefits from the active cross-talk resulting in more holistic & realistic planning to strengthen spiritual community.

PURPOSE: Strengthen our spiritual community by Religious Support partnering appropriately with other professional care-providers and religious volunteers

"Monthly Unit Ministry Team Training"

