

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION RETREAT 2023

Thank you again to our amazing team of Catechists, your dedication for our students every week is not unnoticed. We see you and we appreciate each and everyone of you!! In addition, a special thanks to: Father Daniel, DRE Mr. Auken, SFC Beasley, SSG Johnson, and all the RSO Staff who helped and made this event a possibility for our FHC students.

Who: First Holy Communion Students from Rose Barracks and Netzaberg Chapels.

What: FHC Retreat

When: April 22, 2023

Where: Tower Barracks Chapel

Why: For our students to prepare in the next step towards the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Also, to join together and reinforce their knowledge from the classroom with in-depth discussions and activities.

Summary: First Holy Communion Students from Our Lady of the Woods and Wilderness Catholic Community came together for a one day retreat. Topics centered on: The Mass is important, reverence is needed, having a personal relationship with God and to be an evangelizer to others.

In addition, during this time the students practiced how to receive the Holy Eucharist, learned about the patrons of First Holy Communion and took part in the beautiful Sacrament of First Reconciliation.
