

USAG Ansbach National Day of Prayer Luncheon

CH (MAJ) Napieralski started the event with a prayer for unity. USAG Ansbach Garrison CDR, COL Jones, presents COA and gift to CH (COL) Lasley after the inspirational word.

The community had great fellowship with one another over food and cake. COL Jones delivers the opening remarks.

Summary: On 3 May 2018 the USAG Ansbach Religious Support Office (RSO) provided a National Day of Prayer luncheon, to provide spiritual strength and resiliency to the Ansbach community. Prayers were offered for: unity, the nation, peace, families and community, and then a very inspirational message covering spiritual resiliency was given by IMCOM-E Command Chaplain, CH (COL) Paul Lasley. The event was attended by over 120 community members; consisting of IMCOM-E Region Director, service members, retirees, civilians, family members and host nation community members and city officials. This event emphasized the Garrison Commander's line of effort Ready and Resilient.
