

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, Oct. 24, 2024

Click on a story to read the complete version online. Note some networks do not allow access to embedded links. For those readers under this network restriction, right click the article you want to read and "Copy link location" into your browser.

★ ★ ★ TIP OF THE WEEK ★ ★ ★

Learn more about the Army's spouse employment program.

New dining facility initiative at Fort Cavazos serves up success with assist from 407th AFSB

An unveiling and ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Headquarters, Department of the Army Go for Green Action Menu and Station was held Oct. 9 at the Operation Iraqi Freedom Dining Facility on Fort Cavazos, home of III Armored Corps.

Schofield Barracks CDC reaccredited, maintaining top-quality standards

The Schofield Barracks Child Development Center, alongside Child and Youth Services, USAG Hawaii, recently achieved reaccreditation from the National Association for the Education of Young Children, reaffirming its commitment to providing top-quality care for children and Families within the Schofield Barracks community.

Fort Buchanan provides resolute support to military readiness in the Caribbean

Soldiers from the 398th Finance Company conducted premobilization training at the installation's Training Support Center on Oct. 8, using the Engagement Skills Trainer 2000 to sustain their marksmanship skills in the M4 and M9 weapons systems.

Ongoing Army energy efforts enhance resiliency, AMC and other leaders note

As the Army continuously transforms, it is looking at how it powers its installations, modernizing and leveraging renewable energy. Experts across the Army shared updates at the Association of the U.S. Army's Annual Meeting during a Warriors Corner panel Oct. 14.

Rheinland-Pfalz's Family Advocacy Program team educates Soldiers through creative PT

The mission was clear: the Family Advocacy Program team will educate Army units about FAP resources during unit physical training to increase awareness and prevent (or reduce) domestic violence and child abuse. USAG Rheinland-Pfalz's FAP team took a creative approach, conducting a circuit training session on Oct. 8.

Camp Zama youths give back to community via MWR Theatre production of 'Annie Kids'

For the last eight weeks, the crew for the Camp Zama MWR Theatre Group's inaugural production featuring an all-elementary-age cast have labored to bring "Annie Kids" to the community. This week, they're running through final dress rehearsals of the 40-minute production, hoping to fill the Camp Zama Community Center seats on Oct. 25-27.

Fort Drum families get adventurous with food to learn healthy eating habits

Parents and children explored different flavors, colors, shapes, and textures that can make food an everyday adventure during a class Oct. 16 inside the Soldier and Family Readiness Division's Enrichment Center at Fort Drum. The Sensory Eating Adventures program allowed Families to discuss the particulars about eating habits.

Camp Darby servicemembers commemorate WWII 80th anniversary in Florence

Servicemembers from Camp Darby took part in a living tribute event Oct. 2 at the Florence American Cemetery to commemorate 80 years since the Northern Italian Campaign in World War II. LTC Ross Hertlein of Army Field Support Battalion-Africa, whose son recently joined the military, had strong feelings about the experience.

Fort Hunter Liggett Army Reserve spouses making a difference for military Families

Many Fort Hunter Liggett members actively contribute to the surrounding communities and make a difference with their work and leadership. Two Army Reserve spouses stand out as teachers at San Antonio Elementary, a rural school in Central California.

Vietnam-era Army ordnance vets visit Fort McCoy, garrison command team

Several Vietnam War-era veterans with the 85th Ordnance Company made a reunion visit to Fort McCoy on Sept. 26, and the vets had a full day of activities at the installation. The former Soldiers in the company first started their post visit with a stop at Fort McCoy Garrison Headquarters.

CDC construction, traffic rerouting discussed at Fort Leavenworth village mayors' meeting

Changes to regular traffic patterns with the upcoming closure of the intersection at Iowa and Hancock avenues and the temporary opening of Hancock Gate during the initial phase of the new Child Development Center construction were among the main topics briefed on and discussed at the monthly Fort Leavenworth village mayors' meeting.

Fort Bliss hosts airshow amidst record heat

After a 12-year hiatus, the MSSG Amigo Airshow returned to the skies over east Fort Bliss and El Paso on Oct. 12-13. Hosted by the Amigo Airshow organization, a local nonprofit that supports youth scholarship and celebrates Sun City's culture, the weekend festivities, amidst record-breaking heat for mid-October, featured multiple acts including the Royal Canadian Air Force Snowbirds and the U.S. Army Golden Knights.

Fort Walker's in-house workforce repairs culverts, saves government millions

Deep in the heart of Fort Walker's old-growth forests, a three-mile research range is carved out of the landscape. This range features various elevations, some rough terrain and wetlands; access downrange is navigated by a gravel road (Laser Range Road) on the south side. For the roads to not wash out, culverts are needed.

Picatinny employee nominated for LATINA Style Distinguished Military Service Award

Jasmine Navarro (formerly Russell), a Manpower and Agreements Analyst for USAG Picatinny Arsenal, was recently selected as the installation's first nomination for the Distinguished Military Service Award, which was presented at this year's National LATINA Symposium Sept. 19.

Yongsan-Casey Soldiers strengthen readiness and camaraderie during Field Training Exercise

Headquarters and Headquarters Company, USAG Yongsan-Casey, held a four-day Field Training Exercise on Oct. 15-18, covering land navigation, first aid training, weapons qualification tests, a six-mile ruck march, and more.

Fort Hamilton garrison recognizes workforce during All Hands Award Ceremony

Leadership at USAG Fort Hamilton honored employees for their exceptional service during its fiscal 2024 third quarter awards ceremony Oct. 15 at the Fort Hamilton Community Club Pierce Room.

IMCOM GROUNDBREAKING EVENTS

Oct. 31, Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall

Ribbon cutting for Barracks Building 248 Renovation Completion.

SOURCE: Event information is provided by installation staff, who upload it to the IMCOM HQ G4 SharePoint calendar. Contact local DPW personnel for more information.

Follow us on social media

LinkedIn
@U.S. Army
Installation
Management Command

X @ArmyIMCOM

Scan this QR code to catch up on back issues of the IMCOM Weekly
News Sampler

