Fort Belvoir re-opens Dogue Creek Bridge
Access control point open for rush hours only
Leadership from Fort Belvoir Garrison and the Army Corps of Engineers, Baltimore District, celebrated the re-opening of Belvoir’s Dogue Creek Bridge, which was replaced in a two-year project.

U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden makes day special for ill teenager with visits to displays
The U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden’s command team, Directorate of Emergency Services, fire department and staff from the Wiesbaden Army Airfield all came together Feb. 23 to make it a special day in the life of a terminally ill teenager.

Fort Knox’s primary water treatment plant resumes operations after 2020 closure
After being shut down in November 2020 for renovations, Fort Knox’s Muldraugh Water Treatment Plant is once again operational and treating water for the installation and the city of Muldraugh.

McCoy DFMWR opens new unit PT fitness facility
On Feb. 9, Fort McCoy officials cut the ribbon on a new Unit Physical Training Fitness Facility Feb. 8. Located in building 1395 at the Track and Field Site, the new facilities is expected to increase Fort McCoy’s ability to meet both its permanent and visiting populations’ fitness needs.

Fort Hamilton hosts training for NYPD counterterrorism K-9 unit
The New York City Police Department counterterrorism’s K-9 unit conducted training Feb. 23 at several Fort Hamilton facilities as part of an ongoing partnership between the organizations.
New SharePoint site streamlines DPW training
The U.S. Army Installation Management Command's PW GFEBS eTraining, known as GeT, is helping garrison Department of Public Works personnel to stay updated on training and new developments in their field by using the G4 SharePoint site.

Daegu Commissary expands operation hours
Early-bird shoppers at Camp Walker now have more weekday options. The Daegu Commissary has expanded hours of service on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. This is two hours earlier than previous hours of operation.

ACS, joint-base partners stand up Emergency Family Assistance Center as exercise
The Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall Army Community Service stood up an Emergency Family Assistance Center Feb. 16 to practice and coordinate with base tenant organizations in the event there is a real-life occurrence on the base.

Fort Stewart leadership celebrates partnership with local elementary school
There was excitement in the air at Hinesville’s Waldo Pafford Elementary School Feb. 14. Students and faculty gathered with the Fort Stewart Garrison command team and prominent members of the local community to celebrate the school’s 21st birthday and a recent grant.

Upgrades on tap for DFMWR shooting range
The Cheyenne Mountain Shooting Complex, just east of Fort Carson, will receive an upgrade during the next few months. Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation officials announced that work crews will upgrade one of the complex’s largest ranges to accommodate their partners’ increased usage. Public users should benefit from the upgrades as well, said Pedro Viorato, CMSC business manager.
Camp Humphreys youth center teaches Black history with art exhibition

Students at the U.S. Army Garrison Humphreys Smith Middle School and Teen Center participated in a Black history art exhibition Feb. 18. The art exhibition was a creative way for the students to set their differences aside and learn about Black history.

Teen dating violence awareness seminar promotes healthy relationships to Zama youth

A seminar offered to teens at Camp Zama, Japan, was meant to raise their awareness of the issue of dating violence among their age group and introduce them to various on-base resources, one of the event’s organizers said.

JBLE aims to raise $100k for AER

Joint Base Langley-Eustis looks to raise $100,000 for its annual Army Emergency Relief campaign. AER is a private, nonprofit organization that was created to help Soldiers and their Family members who experience financial emergencies.

Southern Arizona Defense Alliance advisory committee visits Fort Huachuca

The Southern Arizona Defense Alliance advisory committee recently visited Fort Huachuca to learn more about the installation’s 146-year history. SADA members are business people and community representatives who support the preservation of military assets.

Italian base commander treats garrison newcomers to seasonal risotto recipe

COL Michele Amendolagine cultivates a passion for cooking while experimenting with new recipes. During a recent U.S. Army Garrison Italy class for newcomers, however, Amendolagine chose one of his wintertime favorites – Risotto al Radicchio Trevigiano Tardivo.
IMCOM GROUNDBREAKING EVENTS Through June 1, 2022

March 8, Fort Lee, 1 p.m. groundbreaking on construction of a new Seaport of Embarkation training facility with a replica of a cargo ship with two ramps to accommodate roll-on/roll-off capabilities for vehicles.

March 9, National Training Center, Fort Irwin, 2 p.m. ribbon-cutting on a new 8,000-square-foot library, which replaces a 35-year-old trailer, in conjunction with the ribbon-cutting of a Starbucks that is reopening with a new drive-through.

March 22, Fort Knox, noon groundbreaking for DoDEA project to replace existing Van Voorhis Elementary School with new.

April 4, USAG Daegu, 10 a.m. ribbon-cutting for completion of 90 dwelling units comprising four five-bedroom units, 26 four-bedroom units, and 60 three-bedroom units in a 15-story tower. The project contract amount is $50.5M with physical completion date of Nov. 25.

April 15, Soldier Systems Center, 9 a.m. groundbreaking (tentative) for Heritage Landing’s 26-unit housing development.

April 19, Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, 10 a.m. groundbreaking (tentative) for swing-space barracks.

May 18, Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, 10 a.m. groundbreaking (tentative) for R&M of Building 248 Barracks.

SOURCE: Event information is provided by installation staff, who upload it to the IMCOM HQ G4 SharePoint calendar, published here. Contact local personnel for more information.