

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, April 24, 2025

Click on a story to read the complete version online. Note some networks do not allow access to embedded links. For those readers under this network restriction, right click the article you want to read and "Copy link location" into your browser.

★ ★ ★ TIP OF THE WEEK ★ ★ ★

Volunteer Appreciation Week, which is April 20-26, is an appropriate time to thank Army volunteers. Click here to learn more.

IMCOM leaders highlight installation readiness, power projection, QoL at AUSA Hot Topics event

IMCOM Commanding General LTG Omar J. Jones IV and CSM Jason Copeland reinforced their commitment to modernizing Army installations in support of readiness, power projection, and quality of life during the Association of the United States Army's Hot Topics forum on "Transforming Army Installations" on April 17.

USARPAC tours warfighter support facilities at Camp Humphreys, including new housing tower

The commanding general of U.S. Army Pacific made a brief stop at Camp Humphreys on April 10 during his tour of military installations across the Pacific. During his tour, GEN Ronald P. Clark visited one of the garrison's newest family housing towers. The tower features spacious, fully furnished apartments equipped with modern appliances.

Fort Knox's garrison support enables ARAC to fulfill missions – on Army Reserve birthday

The Army Reserve turned 117 years old April 23. Thanks to Fort Knox's garrison support, members of the Army Reserve Aviation Command – a Forces Command element -- continue to fulfill missions across the United States, in Northern Europe, Central Asia, and beyond.

Advisory board gives parents a voice in USAG Wiesbaden CYS programs

April marks the Month of the Military Child. One way that USAG Wiesbaden Child and Youth Services serves its military child community is by encouraging parent participation with the Parent Advisory Board.

USAG Hawaii celebrates blessing of new concrete water tank at Schofield Barracks

In a ceremony rooted in tradition, partnership, and shared responsibility, USAG Hawaii commemorated a new, 2-million-gallon concrete water tank — a key milestone in the Army's $1.2 billion, 10-year plan to modernize water infrastructure across its Oahu installations.

Fort Hunter Liggett celebrates the Army's birthday with a 250-mile ruck march

In honor of the U.S. Army's 250th birthday and its official theme, "This We'll Defend," Fort Hunter Liggett, home of the 63rd Readiness Division, is leading a 250-mile regional ruck march to celebrate two and a half centuries of service, sacrifice and strength.

JRTC, Fort Johnson host Education Summit

School teachers, personnel and students from Vernon and Beauregard Parishes joined the installation leadership and Department of Education teams at the Joint Readiness Training Center and Fort Johnson's Education Summit on March 21 at the Warrior Center. The summit highlights the continued partnership between the school districts and JRTC and Fort Johnson.

Standing Strong: Fort Campbell, 101st ABN celebrate military kids with Resiliency Field Day

Fort Campbell's Mahaffey Middle School celebrated the Month of the Military Child with a Resiliency Field Day designed for their students. The event focused on building skills crucial for navigating the unique challenges faced by military Families, offering a supportive and engaging environment for students to thrive.

USAG Rheinland-Pfalz Army Community Service empowers Soldiers through financial readiness

Mission readiness requires more than physical strength; financial well-being is also a part of a Soldier's overall resilience. USAG Rheinland-Pfalz Army Community Service offers a Financial Readiness Program to equip Soldiers with the tools they need for financial success.

New mail lockers at USAG Ansbach to provide blueprint for postal service for Europe garrisons

Military Postal Service customers will soon be able to avoid the line to pick up packages at Army post offices in Europe with the installation of intelligent mail lockers that began at USAG Ansbach, Germany, this week and is slated for completion at all Installation Management Command – Europe garrisons by September.

Camp Zama historical tour boosts joint mission readiness, understanding for Navy command

Six members assigned to U.S. Navy Military Sealift Command Japan, headquartered at the Army's Yokohama North Dock, recently toured various historical sites on Camp Zama for the first time, giving them a better understanding of the history of the U.S. Army in Japan.

Fort Stewart-HAA commander stresses importance of ecosystem of relationships

Fort Stewart-Hunter Army Airfield Garrison Commander COL Marc Austin updated community leaders and stakeholders on the state of the installation April 10 during the Liberty County Progress Through People luncheon.

Fort Buchanan, surrounding community unite to protect military children

COL John D. Samples, Fort Buchanan commanding officer, and CSM Kimberly D. Bergman-Gándara, garrison command sergeant major, signed the Child Abuse Prevention Month and Month of the Military Child Campaign Proclamation on April 4.

Fort Carson, 4th ID volunteers honored for community service in support to warfighters

The Mountain Post celebrated its 554 volunteers April 10, recognizing their combined contributions of 60,000 hours of service in 2024, a cost savings of $2.5 million. The annual ceremony honored the hard work and dedication of the volunteers who support Soldiers and Families across the installation.