

Ryder Diesel Technician Training Program

Course Description

12 –week fast track program designed to equip participants with knowledge and skills provided in this proven curriculum will equip the Soldier with the technical proficiency needed to be a Ryder qualified Level II Diesel technician.

Specifics

Upon successful completion Soldier will be able to identify and explain the different systems of a medium/heavy–duty truck, knowledge of methods of maintaining, diagnosing and repairing equipment. Demonstrate the appropriate tools and diagnostic equipment. Complete inspection, triage, diagnostics and basic repairs to medium/heavy-duty trucks.

Funding: Through grants and donations/ No Cost to Soldiers

Eligibility requirements

1. Active Duty transitioning (priority)
2. Secure Command authorization to participate
3. Honorable or General discharge
4. Pass background check and drug screening