

Extended Logistical Support (ELS)

This action is processed in legacy until further notice

Soldiers who are staying in Italy after the start of their transitional leave and wish to continue their logistical support must request ELS prior to the start of the leave.

Extended logistical support allows Soldiers to retain their base access, SETAF driver's license, vehicle registration, UTEP and postal services until their last day on active duty.

Required Documents:

- DA 4187
- Must state reason and timeframe of request
  - (The end date cannot go beyond your last day of Active Duty)
  - Signed by Soldier & BN Commander
- PCS Orders & amendments
- Proof of Command Sponsorship of Family members, if dependents are not listed on the PCS orders. (Examples: CRBA, CS Message, DFT orders)
- Retirement or Separation Orders
- DD 93
- Soldier Talent Profile (STP) (dated within 30 days)

Soldiers who have an accepted or tentative job offer after their retirement or separation date may request up to 90 days ELS after their last day on active duty. Overseas Separation approval can take several months so plan accordingly.

In addition to the list above, the follow documents are required:

- AE Form 635-150A, signed by GO
- Job acceptance or tentative offer with start date
- Approved Overseas Separation Memo

All questions regarding Overseas Separation can be addressed to SETAF G1 through their group box: usarmy.usag-italy.setaf-af.list.g1-manpower@army.mil

Soldiers who reside in Italy after their last day on active duty are considered to be a tourist and must comply with all Italian immigration laws.
