Camp Zama fosters partnership with neighboring cities at grassroots level through installation visit

The U.S. Army Garrison Japan Public Affairs Office hosted a community engagement event June 16, inviting officials from both Sagami-hara and Zama cities to Camp Zama to visit the installation that neighbors both of them.

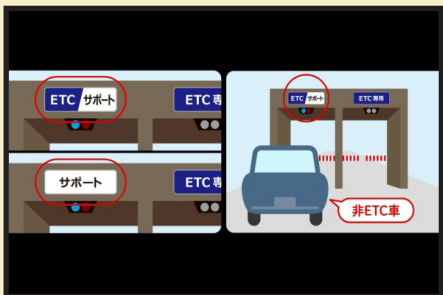

USAG Japan earns first ever Commander's Cup for winning 2021-2022 season

U.S. Army Garrison Japan won its first ever Commander's Cup title for the 2021-2022 intramural sports season, achieving a milestone for the unit that included first-place wins in four season-long events.

Sustainment unit members brave gas chamber to bolster readiness

Coughing, a runny nose and burning eyes and skin may sound like the signs of a worrisome illness. But for Soldiers in the 35th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion, the temporary symptoms were just from another day of training.

Cash lane to close at expressway tollbooth near Camp Zama

Starting Thursday, the Ken-o Expressway's Sagami-hara Interchange, which is close to here and Sagami-hara Family Housing Area, will be operated as an ETC-exclusive tollbooth as other exits in the area also make the switch.

Replica asteroid samples on display at Camp Zama Library through late July

Replicas of samples of asteroid pieces that the spacecraft Asteroid Explorer Hayabusa2 collected from the asteroid "Ryugu" during the course of a six-year space mission are on display at the Camp Zama Library, and will remain there through late July.
