

GDIT Invitational Virtual Job Fair

We are GDIT. Combining proven strategies and technology innovations, we streamline, connect, and secure even the most complex and critical teams. From technology transformations and IT services to training projects that prepare our forces for the unknown. We are on the ground, behind the scenes, and beside the people that protect us—delivering every time.

Join us for a GDIT Invitational Virtual Career Fair to discuss career opportunities in support of the United States Air Force programs. We have several positions throughout the states. Positions are located in Columbia, MD; Langley AFB, VA; Dayton, OH; O'Fallon, IL; San Antonio, TX and Colorado Springs, CO and possibly other areas. Openings include, but are not limited to:

- Network Architect
- Network Engineers – all levels
- Systems Engineers – all levels
- Technical ScrumMaster
- Subject Matter Experts
- Cloud Automation Architects
- DevOps Developers – midlevel
- Software Developers (Java, Linux, Unix, Windows) – all levels

Required

- Minimum Active DOD Secret Clearance
- Security + or 8570 Level II Certifications depending on job requirement
