U.S. Army Career Skills Program (CSP)

The CSP assists service members and families to research and learn skills to find employment. They are designed to provide employment skills training which includes credentialing, training, apprenticeships or internships to active duty service members who will soon be leaving the service. The program is open to all service members (with command approval) who will be within 180 days of separation when the program starts. For more information contact the CSP Installation Administrator at (913) 684-8999 or email:

Corporate Fellowship Applications

Hiring Our Heroes (HOH) Corporate Fellowship Program (CFP) places service members with 180 days or less left on active duty into a 12-week fellowship (internship) program. The program provides mid to upper level corporate experience, credentialing education, and career skills training. Selection for this program is competitive, but offer of employment rates average over 90% per cohort. For more information contact the HOH Program Manager at elee@uschamber.com, call 202-536-8561, or visit

Financial Counseling

Transition Assistance has its own Accredited Financial Counselor on staff that can help with assessing your current and future financial situation. There are many expenses that are incurred as a civilian that military members don't plan for; our financial counselor can help identify and prepare for those expenses.

TAP workshops can be done in continuous days or over a period of time. Classes run from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm. All classes are available to spouses of transitioning military. Dress code for all classes is Duty Uniform or Business Casual.

To get more information, reserve a seat, or get started in the program call 913-684-2227 or email usarmy.sfl-tap.leavenworth@mail.mil.
