MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Command Policy #11, Memorials and Dedications Policy

1. REFERENCES.

- a. AR 1-33, The Army Memorial Program.
- b. AR 1-100, Gifts and Donations.
- c. AR 165-1, Chaplain Activities in the United States Army.
- d. AR 870-5, Military History: Responsibilities, Policies, and Procedures.
- e. AR 870-20, Army Museums, Historical Artifacts, and Art.

2. PURPOSE. To provide guidance on permanent memorialization or dedication on Fort Leavenworth Military Installation. This includes, but is not limited to, statuary, plaques, trees or structures of any kind.

3. GENERAL. All requests for the memorialization or dedication of any devices designed to honor any individual or group shall be submitted to the Office of the Garrison Commander. The Office of the Garrison Commander shall be responsible for the processing of all such requests.

4. POLICY/PROCEDURES.

a. Information Required. Request for Memorials and Dedications should include:

(1) "The name, grade or rank, branch of service, of the person to be honored; or if a unit is to be honored, identification of the unit. If a spouse is to be honored in either singly or jointly, requests should include name of the spouse to be honored."

(2) A historical or biographical sketch outlining any achievements which form the basis of the recommendation.

(3) The type of memorial recommended.

(4) Data to support the association of the person with Fort Leavenworth.

(5) If the person for whom an entity is to be dedicated or memorialized is living, the request must include information establishing the following criteria:

(a) That the person to be honored is retired from military service with 20 or more years of honorable service, medically retired because of wounds sustained in combat operations, or recipient of the Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal, or Silver Star.

(b) That the person to be honored is an example for current Soldiers to emulate based on an extraordinary military career of exemplary service.

(c) That the person to be honored is closely connected with the entity being named.

(d) That the person to be honored is a continuing role model supporting Soldiers, their Families, and Army programs.

(e) If the person to be honored is a spouse of a Soldier meeting a and b above, who is to be honored singly (not jointly with the Soldier), and who personally meets the criteria of a and c above, the request must include information establishing that the spouse's contributions are truly extraordinary.

b. After receiving a request for memorialization or dedication, the Office of the Garrison Commander shall form a board composed of the Deputy to the Garrison Commander (Chair), the Command Chaplain, the Director of Plans, Training and Mobilization and Security, the CAC Historian or representative, the Director of Public Works, the Staff Judge Advocate (SJA), Public Affairs Officer (PAO) and a representative from other organizations as deemed necessary by the board chair. It shall review the request in order to prepare a recommendation for acceptance or denial. The board's consideration will include:

(1) A review of the record of the person or group to be recognized.

(2) The significance of the service to the Army or Nation.

(3) The duration and value of that service to the installation.
