A Season of Celebration at JBLM

Tis the season when Joint Base Lewis-McChord shines with the warmth and spirit of the holiday season. December is a time when our garrison comes alive—not only with festive lights and cheerful gatherings, but with the enduring sense of community that makes JBLM such a special place to live, work, and serve.

From the sparkling tree-lighting ceremonies to the holiday concerts and family activities across the installation, there is no shortage of opportunities to celebrate together. Soldiers, Airmen, civilians, and families alike can enjoy winter markets, youth center festivities, and chapel services that honor traditions from around the world. These moments remind us that while our missions are global, our strength is rooted right here at home.

The holidays also highlight the incredible support systems available at JBLM. Whether it's the Army Community Service offering resources for families, the MWR hosting seasonal events, or the countless volunteers who give their time to brighten the lives of others, the garrison embodies the spirit of giving.

As we gather with loved ones, reflect on the year behind us, and look forward to the opportunities ahead, let us celebrate the resilience, camaraderie, and joy that define our community. The Rainier Explorer is proud to highlight the many ways JBLM continues to serve not only the mission, but the people who make it extraordinary.

On behalf of your JBLM Garrison, we extend our heartfelt wishes for a holiday season filled with peace, hope, and togetherness. May this time of reflection and celebration bring comfort, joy, and renewed strength to you and your loved ones.

Winter Safety at JBLM

As temperatures drop and the holidays approach, safety remains a top priority across Joint Base Lewis-McChord. Winter weather will bring icy roads, slippery sidewalks, and shorter daylight hours, so remember to drive cautiously, dress warmly, and stay alert. Keep emergency kits in vehicles, check heaters and smoke detectors at home, and watch out for neighbors who may need extra support. By taking simple precautions, we can all enjoy the season while protecting ourselves, our families, and our mission. Stay safe, JBLM!

Bid, Win, Celebrate!

The year's biggest savings event is back — the JBLM MWR Winter Online Auction is in full swing, offering a wide selection of quality items at unbeatable prices. Between now and Dec. 5, you can bid on furniture, exercise equipment, electronics and golf gear, all perfect for refreshing your home or hobby for the new year. ### Jingle Jamboree in Hangar 3, Plus a Free Tree Just for Thee

Saturday, December 6, 2026, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

JBLM's biggest holiday celebration of the year arrives Saturday, Dec. 6, and you won't want to miss a moment of the magic. Hosted at Hangar 3 on McChord Field from 10 a.m.–4 p.m., Jingle Jamboree transforms the space into a winter wonderland packed with excitement for all ages. Families can explore holiday foods and drinks, visit the mini-golf course, bounce through inflatables, climb the rock wall, play in the snow zone and meet beloved characters including Santa, the Grinch and Buddy the Elf. Meanwhile, service members E1–E5 can stop by the McChord Club the same day for Trees for Troops, where the Christmas Spirit Foundation has provided free, real Christmas trees for pick-up. With festivities happening across McChord Field, this day delivers holiday spirit from morning to evening.

Dash Through the Fun

Saturday, December 13, 10:00 a.m.

Saturday, Dec. 13, brings one of JBLM's most fun runs — the Run, Rudolph, Run 5K and 1K. Starting at 10 a.m. at the MWR Fest Tent, this festive race rewards runners with a bright holiday medal featuring the smiling face of Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer. Nearby, the Kris Kringle Market offers a European-style shopping experience filled with artisan goods, unique gifts and seasonal treats, making it a perfect destination after the race — or for spectators waiting nearby. With registration capped at 900 medals, runners are encouraged to sign up early to secure this year's collectible keepsake. Sign up at JBLMraces.com.

Winterfest Cheer Doesn't Chill

The spirit of Winterfest doesn't stop after Jingle Jamboree. Throughout December, MWR is spreading joy with a series of festive giveaways on Facebook and Instagram, including prizes such as Seahawks tickets, Chuck E. Cheese vouchers and hotel stays at the Renaissance Seattle Hotel. Families can also enjoy holiday crafting at Arts & Crafts, where custom ornaments can be painted and fired, and readers of all ages can dive into the JBLM Libraries Winter Reading Program. Whether you're relaxing at home or out exploring the installation, there's something warm and bright for everyone this season.

Lights, Laughter, and Leavenworth

Outdoor Recreation is offering multiple trips this December and January to Leavenworth, the iconic Bavarian-themed town known for its breathtaking holiday lights. With dazzling displays decorating every corner — from rooftops to treetops — Leavenworth transforms into a picture-perfect Christmas village from late November through February. These trips include comfortable transportation, freeing you from the stress of winter driving while allowing ample time to wander the shops, enjoy the food and soak in the scenery. With added trip dates this year, there's no better time to experience one of Washington's most magical holiday destinations. Register online at JBLModr.com.

Directorate of Human Resources

Supporting Service Members Through the Holidays

As the holiday season approaches, the Directorate of Human Resources (DHR) at Joint Base Lewis-McChord continues its mission of supporting Soldiers, Families, and Civilians with essential services that keep our community strong. While many are preparing for celebrations, travel, and time with loved ones, DHR ensures that the people behind the mission are cared for and supported.

DHR provides a wide range of services that touch nearly every aspect of life at JBLM. From military personnel records and ID card services to civilian workforce management, retirement processing, and casualty assistance, the directorate is dedicated to ensuring that administrative needs are met with professionalism and compassion. During the holidays, these services become even more vital as Soldiers and Families balance duty requirements with seasonal activities.

The Military Personnel Division remains available to assist with leave paperwork, emergency travel orders, and personnel actions that often arise during this busy time of year. The Civilian Personnel Advisory Center continues to support civilian employees with staffing, benefits, and workplace guidance, ensuring that the JBLM workforce remains resilient and ready.

Equally important, the Casualty Assistance Center stands ready to provide dignified and compassionate support to Families in times of need, a reminder that the JBLM community is never alone.

For those navigating transitions, whether retiring, separating, or beginning new assignments, DHR offers counseling and resources to make the process smooth—even during the holiday rush.

The holidays are a time of joy, reflection, and connection. The Directorate of Human Resources embodies these values by ensuring that every member of the JBLM community has the support they need. Behind the scenes, DHR is the steady hand that helps keep the mission moving while allowing Soldiers and Families to focus on what matters most: celebrating together.

DATE:

TIME:

Did you know that each missed appointment (no-show) takes up two additional appointment slots? This keeps another service member, family member or Retiree from using that appointment slot for medical care.

No-shows can disrupt patient care schedules, stretch staff resources thin, and cause access issues or delays for other patients.

We understand that life can be unpredictable. If you need any help rescheduling or canceling future appointments, please call Pacific Integrated Referral Management and Appointing Center (PIRMAC) at 1-800-404-4506 for assistance.

We truly appreciate your cooperation and support as we work to provide all of Madigan's patients efficient and high-quality medical care.

A note from our Legal Team...

HOLIDAY GUIDANCE

FOR: Department of War Personnel
FROM: DoW Standards of Conduct Office,
Office of the General Counsel
DATE: November 19, 2025

As the holiday season approaches, it's important to remember that Department of Defense and Army ethics rules remain in full effect—even when festivities are underway. These guidelines ensure that Soldiers, Civilians, and Families celebrate responsibly while upholding the integrity of our profession.

One of the most common areas of concern during the holidays is gift giving. Federal ethics rules restrict gifts between supervisors and subordinates, and prohibit acceptance of gifts from prohibited sources such as contractors or organizations that do business with the Army. While small tokens of appreciation may be permissible under certain exceptions, the safest approach is to contact your Ethics Official for guidance.

Holiday parties and unit gatherings are another area where ethics rules apply. Official funds cannot be used for personal celebrations, and participation must remain voluntary. Leaders should ensure that events are inclusive, respectful, and free from pressure to contribute financially.

Travel and use of government resources also require attention. Official vehicles, equipment, and duty time must never be used for personal holiday errands. Maintaining clear boundaries between professional responsibilities and personal activities protects both individuals and the mission.

By keeping these rules in mind, we can enjoy the season while preserving trust in our institutions. The holidays are a time for gratitude, fellowship, and reflection—and by honoring federal ethics standards, we ensure that our celebrations reflect the values we serve.

For questions please contact an Ethics Official within your organization's legal office.

You may also visit <https://dodsoco.ogc.osd.mil/ETHICS-TOPICS/Gifts/> for more information.

Best wishes from SOCO for a wonderful holiday season!

Top 10 Holiday Waste Tips

1. Choose reusable gift wrap: Fabric, brown paper, recycled newspapers, or reusable bags.
2. Buy thoughtfully: Experiences like concert tickets, zoo packages, or a homecooked meal make great gifts without the added waste.
3. Use real cups and plates: Planning a party? Opt for real plates and cups in place of single use items. Giving leftovers? Thrift some casserole dishes!
4. Smart decorating: Use what you already have, forage for greenery and pine cones, or check out the on-base thrift stores.
5. LED lights: Choose LED lights when decorating, they use less energy and last longer than normal lightbulbs.
6. Donate before you toss: Have unwanted holiday items? Consider donating them before you toss them.
7. Recycle responsibly: Flattened cardboard boxes, clean dry plastic bottles with the lids removed, and paper products are common recyclables around the holidays. Remember to separate plastic film from cardboard.
8. Non-recyclable curbside items: Shiny gift wrap, plastic wrap, shiny gift bags, soiled food boxes, plastic bags, and glass.
9. Skip glitter and flocking: Glitter, flocking and artificial snow can't be recycled or composted. Choose natural uncoated materials for decor and wrapping.
10. Compost your real Christmas tree: Compost locally at Earthworks for FREE. Drop off your tree without any decorations on it at our Earthworks facility between 7:00AM-3:30PM Monday-Friday.

Working Together to Bring Holiday Cheer

Community Club to Host Holiday Market in Conjunction with MWR Festivities

(JBLM, WA, 1DEC2025) – The Community Club of Lewis McChord (CCLM) and JBLM MWR are pleased to announce the 5th Annual Kris Kringle Market, to be held on Saturday, December 13, 10am-5pm, at the MWR Fest Tent at Lewis Main Post. This year's market will be held in conjunction with MWR holiday events including the Run, Rudolph, Run 5K. The volunteer-led market brings together the local community, small businesses, and those in need. Community Club President, River Lopez-Andress, says, "Our annual Kris Kringle Market is such a great time each year. Being able to host an event that simultaneously connects our organization with the local community, provides a spotlight on small businesses, and gives back during the holidays is such a wonderful experience. This year, we're especially excited to feature home-based businesses on JBLM as well."

Admission to the Kris Kringle Market is free, and participants in the Run, Rudolph, Run race will receive hot cocoa and a cookie as part of their registration. In addition to dozens of unique vendors, the market will also feature photos with Santa, kids' activities, live entertainment, a 360 photo booth with the Grinch, and a toy drive in support of Toys for Tots. Each donation to the toy drive will earn the donor a free ticket for the opportunity to win festive prizes.

CCLM is proud to work alongside the JBLM MWR team to bring holiday cheer this season. For the first time, both organizations will be working together to enhance the experience for all in the community. The event is free to attend, making spirits bright for all budgets. Though, CCLM encourages attendees to support the small businesses who will be selling their beautifully crafted products and delicious treats. "We're honored to be part of the Kris Kringle Holiday Market on base," said Ella Armstrong, owner of Uncle Sam's Soda. "For us at Uncle Sam's Soda, this event is more than just a market, it's a chance to celebrate the community that inspires everything we do. Our brand was built around supporting and serving military families, and we're excited to bring that same spirit of pride and joy to this festive event. We can't wait to showcase our holiday menu, meet new faces, and reconnect with familiar ones all while standing beside other amazing home based businesses. Events like Kris Kringle remind us why we love what we do: spreading cheer, giving back, and keeping the morale high one soda at a time," continued Armstrong.

CCLM is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to positively impacting the lives of military families throughout the region. Most of the money that CCLM earns from the Kris Kringle Market will go back into the community through their Community Grants program, while the rest keeps CCLM's newest initiatives in operation, such as The Hive resource hub, Lunch N Learn, and the Carson Career Closet. "Every dollar spent supports local nonprofits and brightens lives," said Kia Sheline, 2nd Vice President for the Community Club of Lewis McChord.

Pearl Harbor Day: Honoring the Past, Inspiring the Mission at JBLM

On the morning of December 7, 1941, the tranquil waters of Pearl Harbor were shattered by the thunder of Japanese aircraft. In less than two hours, the United States Pacific Fleet was devastated: battleships lay burning, aircraft destroyed, and more than 2,400 Americans killed. President Franklin D. Roosevelt would call it “a date which will live in infamy,” and indeed it marked the nation’s entry into World War II.

Pearl Harbor was more than an attack on ships and planes—it was an assault on America’s sense of security. Yet from that tragedy arose a renewed spirit of resilience and determination. Soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines mobilized across the nation, answering the call to defend freedom. The legacy of their sacrifice continues to shape the mission of today’s military, including the men and women of Joint Base Lewis-McChord.

JBLM, home to both Army and Air Force units, embodies the lessons of Pearl Harbor in its daily mission. The attack underscored the importance of readiness—being prepared for the unexpected, whether at home or abroad. Today, JBLM soldiers of I Corps and airmen of the 62nd Airlift Wing train relentlessly to ensure they can deploy rapidly, respond decisively, and support allies worldwide. Just as Pearl Harbor demanded immediate mobilization, JBLM stands as a hub of power projection for the Indo-Pacific region, ensuring America is never caught unprepared again.

Pearl Harbor also reminds us of the value of joint operations. In 1941, the Navy and Army Air Forces fought side by side in Hawaii. At JBLM, jointness is not an emergency response but a way of life. Army and Air Force units integrate daily, combining ground combat power with global airlift capability. This synergy ensures that JBLM can deliver soldiers and equipment anywhere in the world, often within hours, reflecting the hard-earned lesson that victory requires unity of effort.

Equally important is the spirit of service and sacrifice. The heroes of Pearl Harbor—those who manned anti-aircraft guns, fought fires, and rescued shipmates—set a standard of courage that continues to inspire. JBLM’s soldiers and airmen carry that torch, whether supporting humanitarian missions, responding to natural disasters, or standing guard in distant lands. Their commitment honors the memory of those who gave their lives on December 7, 1941.

As we pause to remember Pearl Harbor Day, we do more than look back. We reaffirm the values of vigilance, unity, and sacrifice that remain central to JBLM’s mission. The men and women stationed here are heirs to that legacy, charged with ensuring that America is ready, resilient, and resolute in the face of any challenge.

On December 7, we honor the fallen, salute the survivors, and recognize that their courage continues to guide us. For JBLM’s soldiers and airmen, Pearl Harbor is not just history—it is a reminder of why they serve, and a call to remain ever ready to defend freedom.
